VOYAGERS' QUIZ

PRELIMS

Rules

- This round contains 15 questions that take you on a voyage across the world.
- A correct answer gives you +10 points.
- There are no negative marks, so feel free to take a guess.
- This is a written round, so do not shout out the answers.
- Refrain from Googling, and using the Internet.
- Buckle up Guys! You are in for a ride.

SAMPLE QUESTION

Poruvazhy Peruviruthy Malanada Temple in Kerala stands out for its unique traditions, being the only temple where Kaurava king Duryodhana is the presiding deity. According to legend, while searching for the Pandavas during their exile, Duryodhana arrived in this region parched with thirst. A lower-caste old woman offered him X to drink which he accepted without hesitation. Till date X is a revered temple offering, despite its strong social taboo in the Indian context.

ID X.

ANSWER

X - Alcohol

QUESTION 1

Xism is an unconventional lifestyle or subculture, whose followers prioritize community living and artistic endeavours while rejecting certain constraints of mainstream society, such as money and social etiquette. The 1975 song X _____(8), has been crowned a masterpiece due to its unique blend of musical styles, dramatic operatic structure, highly emotional lyrics, and a captivating music video. Some suggest that the title draws strongly on the individualism of an artists' world and the lead singer's unconventional lifestyle.

ID X and the song.

QUESTION 2

Japan's reputation for X extends to its train system, where even minor _ (plural 6) are taken seriously. The issuance of a "_ _ (5, 11)" reflects this cultural commitment for X and accountability. Passengers can present these certificates as proof helping to maintain trust in their X. Interestingly, similar systems exist in other places, like Germany and Paris, though they may not be as commonly known or widespread as in Japan.

ID what is being talked about here.

(Image in the next slide)

IMAGE

遅延時分
35分
40分
45分
50分
55分
60分 電車遅延証明書
当駅到着の電車は周囲入きょう
のとおり遅延したことを証明します
相模鉄道株式会社
横浜駅長 遅延時分 5分
10分
15分
20分
25分
30分
日 付
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10 20 30

QUESTION 3

The origins of X can be traced to a deep-rooted rivalry between two neighboring states, each boasting its own unique narrative and distinct variation of the delicacy. One lineage of X dates back to ____(4), where it was originally known as Kheermohana before evolving into the celebrated Pahala X. For centuries, this sweet has been a revered offering to Goddess Lakshmi at a renowned Indian temple, Notably, X holds a remarkable distinction unmatched by any other Indian sweet.

What is the speciality of X?

QUESTION 4

X is a natural phenomenon in Antarctica's Taylor Valley, first discovered by Australian geologist Thomas Griffith Taylor during the British Antarctic Expedition. Initially thought to be caused by algae, the red hue actually results from iron-rich water emerging from beneath the glacier. Though clear at first, the water oxidizes upon contact with air, forming rust giving X its distinctive name.

ID X.

QUESTION 5

The Bolivian capital of La Paz has historically been a den of the country's national team. The side has lost very few games back at home and it is considered due to their players being familiar with the environment while the opposition players regularly complain of symptoms of dehydration and head pain. The effect is also felt by the hosts, but their childhood upbringing gives them an edge over the opponents.

ID what is special about the stadium.

QUESTION 6

X, a prominent tourist destination, attracts numerous visitors annually. Despite its popularity, X is also notorious for a high incidence of disappearances, with an exceptionally low survival rate. Tragically, only one individual who vanished has ever returned alive. Initially documented by British officer BS Ward in 1821, X acquired its well-known moniker from a film. Recently, X regained prominence following its depiction in another blockbuster movie.

ID X.

QUESTION 7

The X line is a 10 km long defensive line made of "dragon's teeth" fortifications built during the Second World War in Switzerland. These lines of defensive blocks can be found all over, though more commonly in border areas. Their purpose was to stop tank invasions. The 2,700 nine-tonne concrete blocks that make up the defences are similar to the shape of the X, which gave the name to the line.

ID

X.

(Image in the next slide)

IMAGE

QUESTION 8

Al-Suwaih and Al-Jazir lakes in Oman are also known as ____ (4) lakes. This is due to the presence of algae and bacteria, as well as the lake's salinity level.

The alga Dunaliella salina is a key factor in a particular feature of these salt lakes. Interestingly this type of alga is also consumed by X birds who are known to inhabit salt water bodies and have the same feature.

ID what is special about this type of lake.

QUESTION 9

The Island of Yap is perhaps recognized as the Land of X. While the US dollar serves as the everyday currency in Yap, the X continues to play a significant role for important transactions like dowry payments or land purchases due to which it has a solid economy. An individual Rai piece's worth is based on its size, shape, quality, texture, and most crucially, the challenges faced in acquiring it.

ID X.

QUESTION 10

In a remote region of Africa, a lake with no outlet experiences extreme evaporation, leaving behind dense minerals that make its waters one of the most inhospitable on Earth. With a pH exceeding 12, it resists supporting most life, yet what happens to those that perish here is an unusual transformation X. Their forms remain eerily intact, mirroring a process once mastered by an ancient civilization using natural compounds to achieve a similar effect.

ID X and the process mastered by ancient civilizations.

QUESTION 11

The African X is typically small to medium in size, standing about 60–70 cm tall. Today, their small colony inhabits the coast at the tip of southern Africa and the nearby islands. When Portuguese explorer Bartolomeu Dias reached the southern tip of Africa, he and his crew were the first Europeans to encounter X. As Catholics, they were forbidden to eat meat on Fridays but could eat fish. Dias cleverly classified X as “fish”, due to their behaviour, allowing the crew to eat them guilt-free anytime.

ID X.

QUESTION 12

Various theories have been suggested to explain the unusual feature of X, an ethnic group. One theory relates the feature with the low sunlight in the rainforests, which is essential for the bone growth. Another theory suggests that the feature facilitates their movement in the dense forests.

ID X and the unusual feature, which is almost synonymous with the ethnic group.

QUESTION 13

The concept of the worship of Sun God was very prominent in Ancient Egypt. There were two religions arising from the worship of two gods: The cult of Aten, and The cult of Amun. The Pharaohs, who ruled the land decided the religion that has to be followed, and this led to shifts of religion when rulers changed. The Pharaohs often used the name of the god they worshipped as the suffix to their names.

Akhenaten, the father of a very famous Pharaoh Y established the cult of Aten. After his death, Y caused a shift in religion and changed many things including his name, becoming X, as we now know him.

ID Y.

QUESTION 14

The X forest in Germany has attracted significant attention to it due to both it's name and it's unique flora and fauna. Named so because of it's dense canopy of trees and the perception of ancient Romans of the forest as mysterious and ancient. The name of the above forest has also been known as a reference for a sweet dish originating from Germany.

It has been the inspiration of many fairy tales and the German children stories, known to be grim, can also be traced back to parents making them so, so that kids don't venture far in the forest.

ID X.

QUESTION 15

In 2016, the government of a certain country acknowledged a particular phenomenon by making this their official website's 404 error page.

Which country and what phenomenon were they acknowledging?

(Image in the next slide)

IMAGE

Government
Search Govt
Home /
Page not found
We're sorry, something's missing...

ANSWERS

QUESTION 1

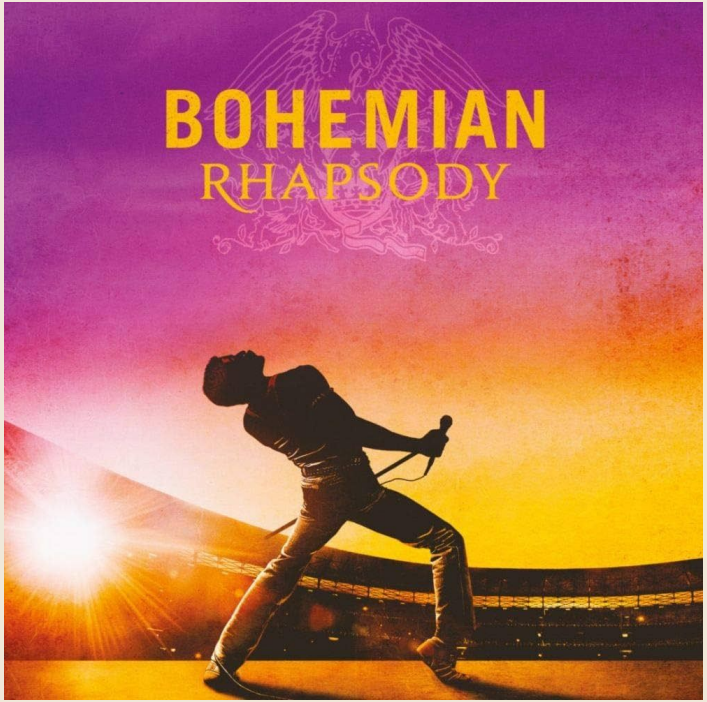

Xism is an unconventional lifestyle or subculture, whose followers prioritize community living and artistic endeavours while rejecting certain constraints of mainstream society, such as money and social etiquette. The 1975 song _____ _____(8,8), which has been crowned a masterpiece due to its unique blend of musical styles, dramatic operatic structure, highly emotional lyrics, and a captivating music video. Some suggest that the title draws strongly on the individualism of an artists' world and the lead singer's unconventional lifestyle.

ID X and the song.

ANSWER

X-Bohemian

Song-Bohemian Rhapsody

QUESTION 2

Japan's reputation for X extends to its train system, where even minor _ (plural 6) are taken seriously. The issuance of a "_ _ (5, 11)" reflects this cultural commitment for X and accountability. Passengers can present these certificates as proof helping to maintain trust in their X. Interestingly, similar systems exist in other places, like Germany and Paris, though they may not be as commonly known or widespread as in Japan.

ID what is being talked about here.

(Image in the next slide)

IMAGE

遅延時分
35分
40分
45分
50分
55分
60分 電車遅延証明書
当駅到着の電車は周囲入きょう
のとおり遅延したことを証明します
相模鉄道株式会社
横浜駅長 遅延時分 5分
10分
15分
20分
25分
30分
日 付
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10 20 30

ANSWER

Issuing delay certificates

QUESTION 3

The origins of X can be traced to a deep-rooted rivalry between two neighboring states, each boasting its own unique narrative and distinct variation of the delicacy. One lineage of X dates back to ____(4), where it was originally known as Kheermohana before evolving into the celebrated Pahala X. For centuries, this sweet has been a revered offering to Goddess Lakshmi at a renowned Indian temple, Notably, X holds a remarkable distinction unmatched by any other Indian sweet.

What is the speciality of X?

ANSWER

X - Rasgulla

Only sweet with 2 GI tags from 2 different state

QUESTION 4

X is a natural phenomenon in Antarctica's Taylor Valley, first discovered by Australian geologist Thomas Griffith Taylor during the British Antarctic Expedition. Initially thought to be caused by algae, the red hue actually results from iron-rich water emerging from beneath the glacier. Though clear at first, the water oxidizes upon contact with air, forming rust giving X its distinctive name.

ID X.

ANSWER

X - Blood Waterfall

QUESTION 5

The Bolivian capital of La Paz has historically been a den of the country's national team. The side has lost very few games back at home and it is considered due to their players being familiar with the environment while the opposition players regularly complain of symptoms of dehydration and head pain. The effect is also felt by the hosts, but their childhood upbringing gives them an edge over the opponents.

ID what is special about the stadium.

ANSWER

The stadium at the highest altitude in the world.

QUESTION 6

X, a prominent tourist destination, attracts numerous visitors annually. Despite its popularity, X is also notorious for a high incidence of disappearances, with an exceptionally low survival rate. Tragically, only one individual who vanished has ever returned alive. Initially documented by British officer BS Ward in 1821, X acquired its well-known moniker from a film. Recently, X regained prominence following its depiction in another blockbuster movie.

ID X.

ANSWER

X-Guna caves or Devils kitchen

QUESTION 7

The X line is a 10 km long defensive line made of "dragon's teeth" fortifications built during the Second World War in Switzerland. These lines of defensive blocks can be found all over, though more commonly in border areas. Their purpose was to stop tank invasions. The 2,700 nine-tonne concrete blocks that make up the defences are similar to the shape of the X, which gave the name to the line.

ID

X.

(Image in the next slide)

IMAGE

ANSWER

X-Toblerone Line

QUESTION 8

Al-Suwaih and Al-Jazir lakes in Oman are also known as ____ (4) lakes. This is due to the presence of algae and bacteria, as well as the lake's salinity level.

The alga Dunaliella salina is a key factor in a particular feature of these salt lakes. Interestingly this type of alga is also consumed by X birds who are known to inhabit salt water bodies and have the same feature.

ID what is special about this type of lake.

ANSWER

The lake is Pink.

QUESTION 9

The Island of Yap is perhaps recognized as the Land of X. While the US dollar serves as the everyday currency in Yap, the X continues to play a significant role for important transactions like dowry payments or land purchases due to which it has a solid economy. An individual Rai piece's worth is based on its size, shape, quality, texture, and most crucially, the challenges faced in acquiring it.

ID X.

ANSWER

X - Stone Money

QUESTION 10

In a remote region of Africa, a lake with no outlet experiences extreme evaporation, leaving behind dense minerals that make its waters one of the most inhospitable on Earth. With a pH exceeding 12, it resists supporting most life, yet what happens to those that perish here is an unusual transformation X. Their forms remain eerily intact, mirroring a process once mastered by an ancient civilization using natural compounds to achieve a similar effect.

ID X and the process mastered by ancient civilizations.

ANSWER

X:Calcification

Mummification

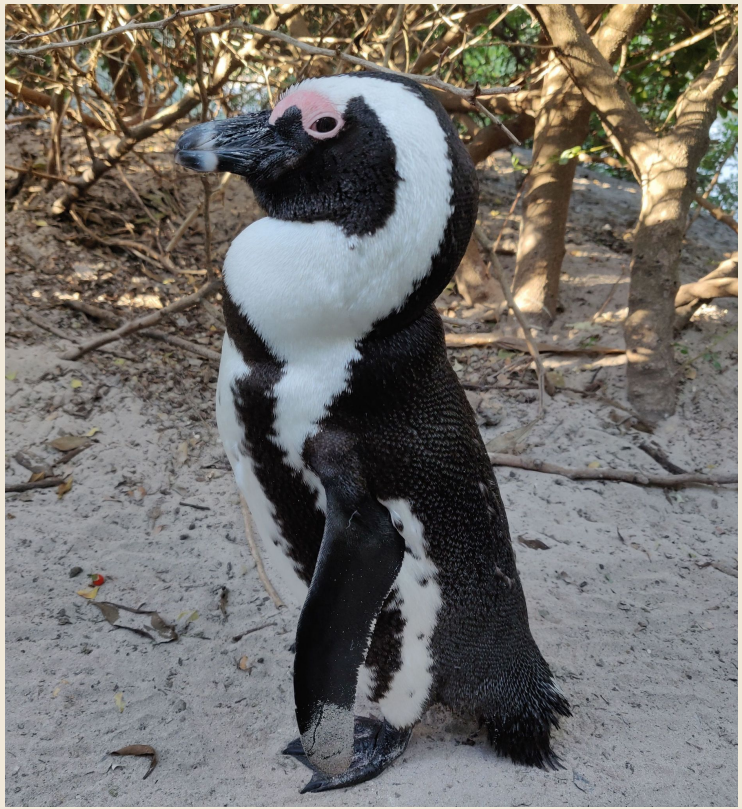

QUESTION 11

The African X is typically small to medium in size, standing about 60–70 cm tall. Today, their small colony inhabits the coast at the tip of southern Africa and the nearby islands. When Portuguese explorer Bartolomeu Dias reached the southern tip of Africa, he and his crew were the first Europeans to encounter X. As Catholics, they were forbidden to eat meat on Fridays but could eat fish. Dias cleverly classified X as “fish”, due to their behaviour, allowing the crew to eat them guilt-free anytime.

ID X.

ANSWER

X - Penguins

QUESTION 12

Various theories have been suggested to explain the unusual feature of X, an ethnic group. One theory relates the feature with the low sunlight in the rainforests, which is essential for the bone growth. Another theory suggests that the feature facilitates their movement in the dense forests.

ID X and the unusual feature, which is almost synonymous with the ethnic group.

ANSWER

X - Pygmies

Their unusual height

QUESTION 13

The concept of the worship of Sun God was very prominent in Ancient Egypt. There were two religions arising from the worship of two gods-The cult of Aten, and The cult of Amun. The Pharaohs, who ruled the land decided the religion that has to be followed, and this led to shifts of religion when rulers changed. The Pharaohs often used the name of the god they worshipped as the suffix to their names.

Akhenaten, the father of a very famous Pharaoh Y established the cult of Aten. After his death, Y caused a shift in religion and changed many things including his name, becoming X, as we now know him.

ID Y.

ANSWER

Y-Tutankhaten

QUESTION 14

The X forest in Germany has attracted significant attention to it due to both it's name and it's unique flora and fauna. Named so because of it's dense canopy of trees and the perception of ancient Romans of the forest as mysterious and ancient. The name of the above forest has also been known as a reference for a sweet dish originating from Germany.

It has been the inspiration of many fairy tales and the German children stories, known to be grim, can also be traced back to parents making them so, so that kids don't venture far in the forest.

ID X.

ANSWER

X-Black

QUESTION 15

In 2016, the government of a certain country acknowledged a particular phenomenon by making this their official website's 404 error page.

Which country and what phenomenon were they acknowledging?

(Image in the next slide)

QUESTION 15

Government
Search Govt
Home /
Page not found
We're sorry, something's missing...

ANSWER

Country - New Zealand

New Zealand is excluded in many maps

FOLLOW US:

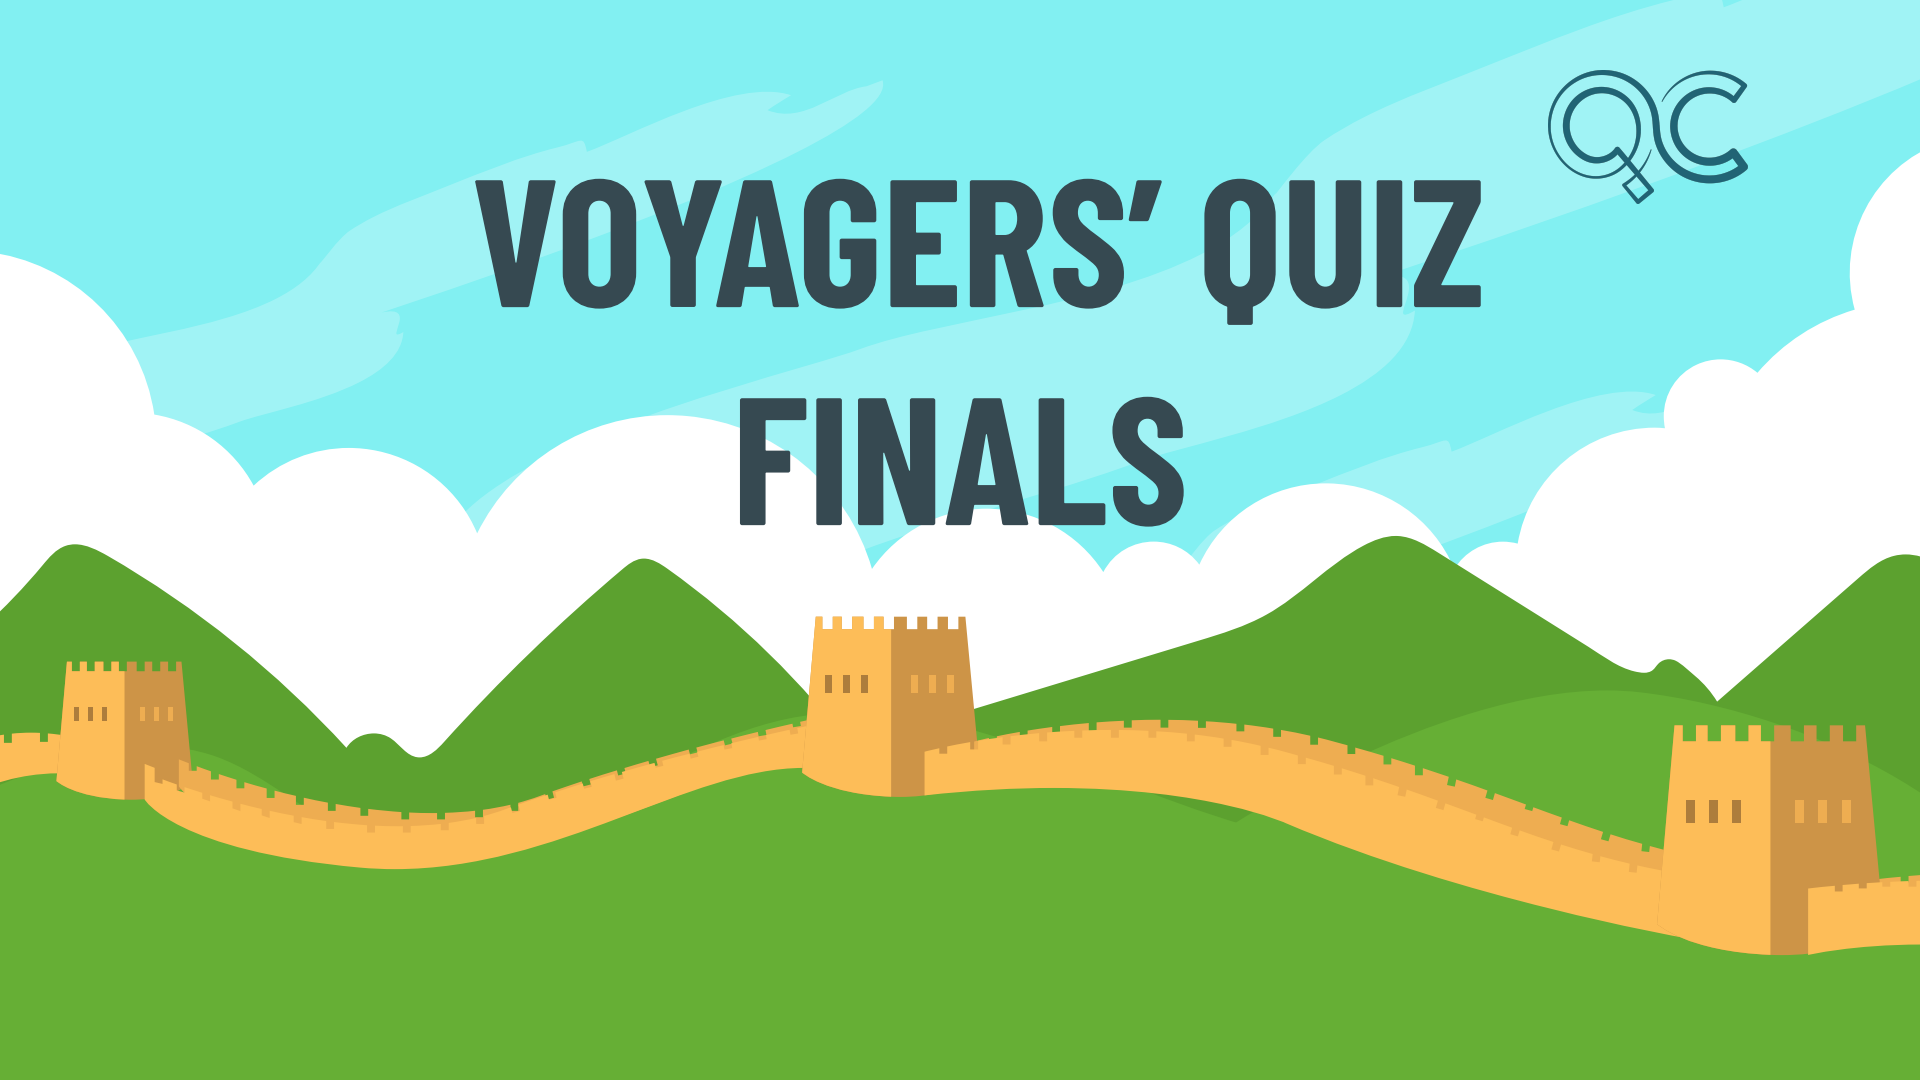

instagram.com/qcnitw
facebook.com/qcnitw
youtube.com/c/QuizClubNITW

Check out more of our quizzes:

slideshare.com/QuizClubNITW

VOYAGERS' QUIZ FINALS

POUNCE
BOUNCE

Rules

- This round has 7 Pounce/Bounce questions.
- Pounce has a scoring scheme of +10/-5 while Bounce has a scoring scheme of +10/0.
- Directs will be to the teams corresponding to the question number.
- There will be part points for only bounce and not pounce.
- Avoid shouting the answers out loud.
- QM’s discretion is final.

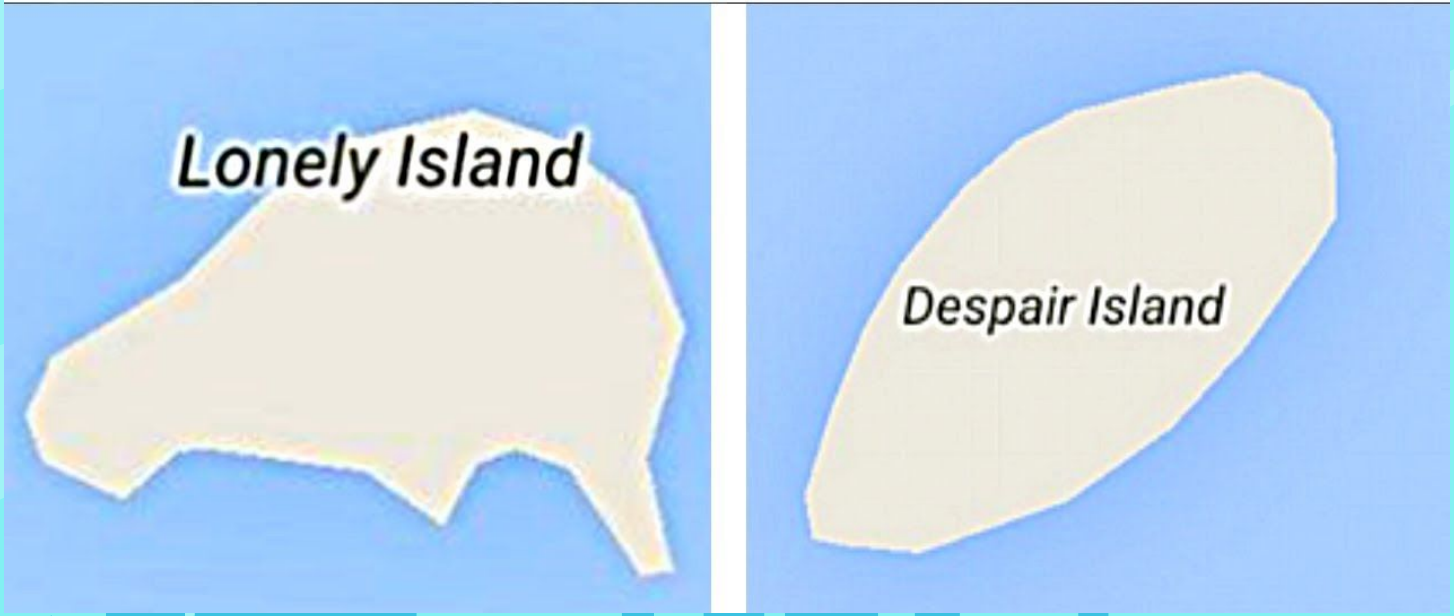

QUESTION 1

The town X is known for its highly unusual name and is the reason for many memes. The name originates due to the hot and humid conditions of the town. The town was named by a German tourist who was passing through the town and due to its beautifully sunny weather exclaimed it to be "a bright town" In German.

Despite protests by religious communities, the name has been kept by local government as it leads to a lot of tourism in the city.

ID X.

WHO NAMED THESE

ANSWER

Hell, Michigan

QUESTION 2

The German city Bielefeld, the vibrant economic center of the region of Detmold, is shrouded in a weird and absurdist conspiracy theory that puzzles a lot of Germans.

The theory takes in the account of its remote location and is based on the fact that tourism is extremely less in the city compared to other German cities. It also has no major historical importance and no major educational institutions.

In 2012, the German Chancellor Angela Merkel held a press conference in the city and finally put this conspiracy theory to rest.

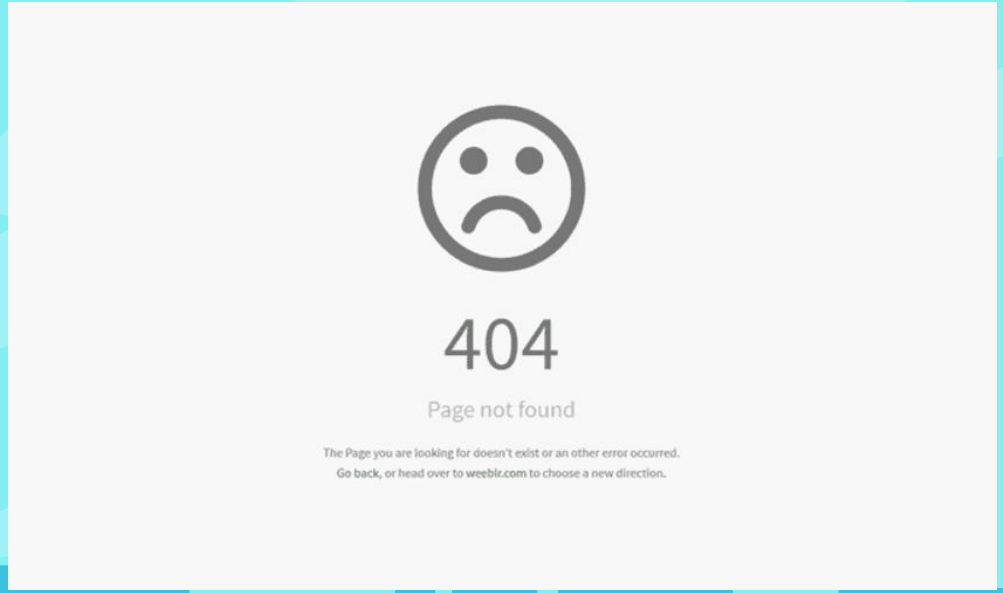

ID what the conspiracy theory was.

The biggest scam in history

ANSWER

The city Bielefeld doesn't exist

QUESTION 3

X genesis can be traced back to Philadelphia in the 1950s. It originated on the day after ___, coinciding with the influx of shoppers and Army-Navy game attendees, which overwhelmed the city.

The term X was initially used by Philadelphia police to describe the chaotic traffic congestion and pedestrian overcrowding they encountered. This particular day represented a boon for local businesses. Now, X has evolved into a globally recognised event.

ID X.

Tomorrow is when there's a test.

It's on Geography.

ANSWER

Black Friday

QUESTION 4

The tradition of hosting the annual festival of La Tomatina began in the 1940s because of a street fight between young people using tomatoes.

The festival was banned in the early 1950s by Francesco Franco, the dictator of Spain, who was a devout Catholic. The ban lasted until 1957, when a large crowd protested in a unique way showing a deep sense of grief, and sadness. The protest involved large marches with sombre music and tomatoes.

ID the reason for the ban and the unique way of protesting.

"Can you scratch my back?"
"Yeah, where?"
"North of India"

ANSWER

Reason- No religious significance

Protest- People carried tomato in a coffin

QUESTION 5

Held under the glow of the full moon, Loy Krathong is a centuries-old Thai ritual symbolizing gratitude, renewal, and spiritual cleansing. Rooted in ancient customs, participants craft a Krathong shaped from nature's broadest pages X surrendering it to an ever-moving path, believing that what is carried away shall not return. As these offerings drift into the distance, their journey serves as a reminder of a Buddhist belief that all things—good or bad—eventually pass.

ID X and the practice being talked about.

SORRY, BUT THE CAPITAL OF CHAD IS NOT "GIGA"

ANSWER

X: Banana Leaves

Floating Krathongs on water

QUESTION 6

The image shown in the next slide is of Neuschwanstein castle in Germany known for its historical architecture, romantic design and fairy tale feel. It is constructed by Ludwig II of Bavaria to give a tribute to Richard Wagner, his favourite composer. This castle serves as inspiration for an attraction in a Hollywood film.

ID what it inspired.

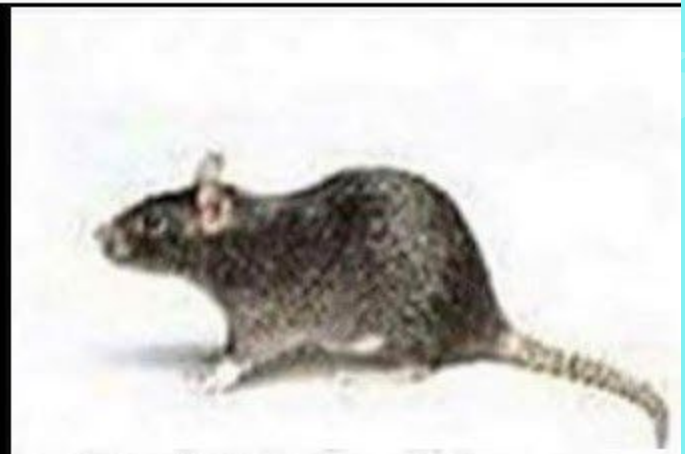

QUESTION 6

Who Would Win?

All of Europe

A Sick Rat

ANSWER

Sleeping Beauty Castle

QUESTION 7

Japan’s National Route 339 is known for its most unique feature: an X. When looking for normal roads to incorporate into the highway, officials were stuck on a particular section. A road in that area would be too steep to use, so they instead incorporated an X existing there as part of the highway. Naturally, the X can only be used by pedestrians and cars cannot cross it.

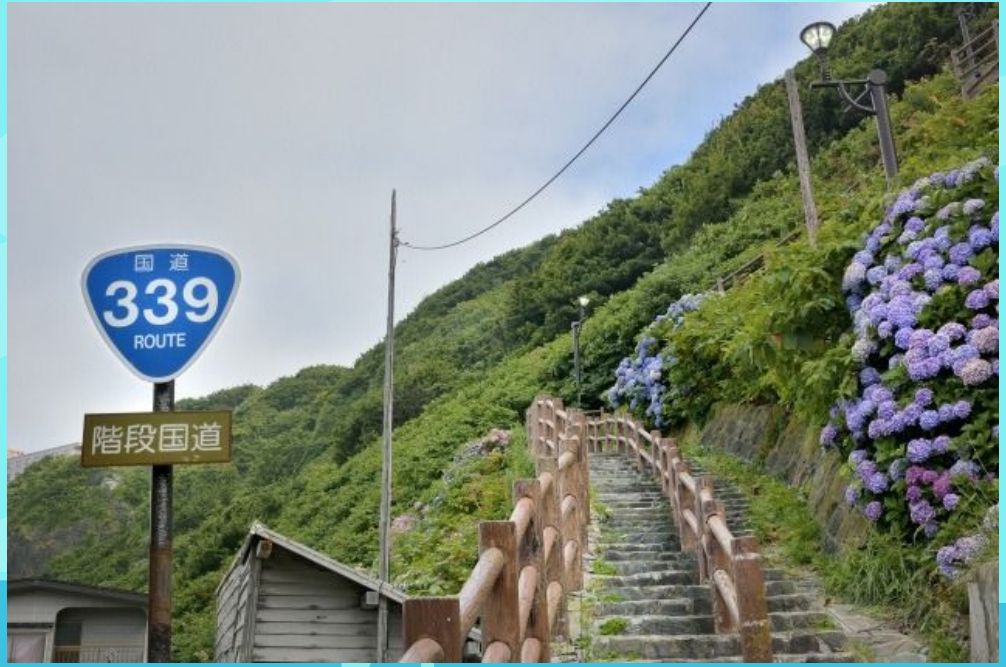

What is the feature?

British after realizing mars.
hasn't been colonized yet...

ANSWER

A Staircase

AV
ROUND

Rules

- There are 7 questions in this round.
- Every correct answer gives + 10 points, and there is no negative marking.
- This is a written round, so do not shout out the answers.
- Each question will have an Audio or Video clip which will help you derive the answer!

QUESTION 1

In this highly popular Marvel movie, India's CBFC censored dialogue delivered by a native African, citing that it may be misinterpreted by the audiences. It was partly due to the fact that this character was later defeated in battle; that may indicate disrespect . Legend has it that when the Ethiopian king Selassie was presented with the book of _____ (9), he replied that he had already read it and that they are ____(4) ites, indicating their strong links to Vedic folklore.

ID the dialogue.

VIDEO

QUESTION 2

In the city of Wroclaw, a popular tourist activity is hunting Xs, which first appeared in 2005. What started with an anti-communist sentiment among the people has now virtually taken over the city. In 2022, an X dedicated to an Indian poet par excellence was unveiled by the city, signifying strong Indo-Polish relations.

ID X and the Indian Poet.

(Image in the next slide)

IMAGE

QUESTION 3

Martin Waldseemuller's 1507 map was the first to depict something honoring the explorer Amerigo Vespucci. This map is considered one of the most important maps in the world and is also referred to as ___ which literally describes the depiction

What is it referred as and why?

(Image in the next slide)

QUESTION 3

AMERICI VESPVCI
ASIA
VNIVERSALIS COSMOGRAPHIA
SECVNDVM PTHOLOMEI TRADITIONEM
ET AMERICI VESPVCII ALIORVM
LVSTRATIONES

QUESTION 4

This flag design, which was chosen to be the national flag through a local competition, makes a clear statement about the island of Nauru. The white star's position near the hoist corresponds to a specific characteristic of the island, aligning with the flag's overall symbolic design.

Explain what the flag describes about Nauru.

(Image in the next slide)

QUESTION 4

QUESTION 5

The character in this video is named after Bossa Nova musician Vinicius de Moraes, one of the writers of “The Girl From Ipanema.” This character witnessed a rebound in the fortunes for his country as they rose against odds and triumphed at home against a feared foe. It gave a new enthusiasm in the next generation about ____, which is practically a religion in his country.

ID the significance of this character and the victory being talked about here.

(Video in the next slide)

QUESTION 5

QUESTION 6

In 1914, a famous expedition led by an explorer set out on a daring mission to achieve a groundbreaking feat. However, disaster struck when the expedition's ship became trapped in _____ and was eventually crushed, forcing the crew to abandon ship.

Despite the extreme conditions and isolation, the leader's extraordinary navigation skills and leadership ensured that every crew member survived.
The crew embarked on a dangerous journey across treacherous waters and barren landscapes to reach safety, a story that is now legendary.

In 2022, over a century later, the shipwreck was finally discovered.

ID this expedition. (Brownie points for naming the ship as well)

QUESTION 6

QUESTION 7

There is a particular visual identity in the clip which symbolises the vibrance and energy of this city.

It stems from the fusion of cultures in the city. However, due to recent safety concerns, this iconic identity aesthetic, immortalised in many movies and TV shows is dwindling.

ID the iconic identity and the city

QUESTION 7

ATLAS

Rules

- There are 5 questions in this round.
- Every correct answer gives + 10 points, and there is no negative marking.
- This is a written round.
- The last letter of the answer of current question will be the first letter of the answer to the next question
- Ex : Delhi->Ice cream->Mongolia

QUESTION 1

During Ramadan, Muslims fast from dawn to dusk. The fasting period is determined by the sun's movement, which is caused by the Earth's rotation.

The timing of fasting in the X located in the Middle East is based on the sun's movement and the local time of Y. The X has different time zones for prayer and fasting, depending on where you are standing as the time of sunsets changes according to ___ .

ID X and Y. (Y goes into ATLAS)

QUESTION 2

The image in the following slide shows a map.

ID what the map represents.

(The Proper Noun goes into ATLAS)

QUESTION 2

ATLANTIC OCEAN
EUROPE
SPAIN
Grenada
Tangier
Algiers
Fès
Marrakech
Mediterranean Sea
Black Sea
Constantinople
TURKEY
Astrakhan
Aral Sea
Caspian Sea
Tabriz
Tigris
IRAN
Samarkand
Esfahan
Kabul
ASIA
Beijing
CHINA
Damascus
Baghdad
Jerusalem
Alexandria
Cairo
Nile
Basra
Shiraz
Delhi
Ganges
HIMALAYAS
Quanzhou
Chittagong
Guangzhou
Sahara Desert
MALI
Oualáta
Timbuktu
Bamako
Niger
AFRICA
Medina
Mecca
ARABIA
Aden
ARABIAN SEA
INDIA
Bay of Bengal
INDOCHINA
South China Sea
Calicut
Ceylon
Maldive Islands
Mogadishu
KENYA
Mombasa
Kilwa
INDIAN OCEAN
Singapore
Borneo
Sumatra
1325–27
1332–46
1330–32
1349–53
0 500 1000 mi
0 800 1600 km
A COMPTON'S MAP

QUESTION 3

The phrase X, coined by James Truslow Adams, in 1930s has had multiple meanings over time.

In the initial phases, it meant having democracy and liberty. It eventually became a vision for achieving material wealth. Critics argued that X causes multiple problems like decrease in labour in multiple countries, and urged people not to fall into the trap.

ID X.

QUESTION 4

X is the oldest city in its country _____ (5). Established by the Greeks in 600 BC, X has long served as a thriving port and a nexus of trade and immigration throughout history. Notably, X holds the unique distinction of having the nation's national anthem named after it—the only country in the world to do so.

This honor was not merely conferred due to X's antiquity but because of the city's pivotal role in the nation's path to democracy.

Citizens of X played a key part in the democratization movement; during their protests, volunteers from the city would march to the capital, singing a song that later became the national anthem.

ID X.

QUESTION 5

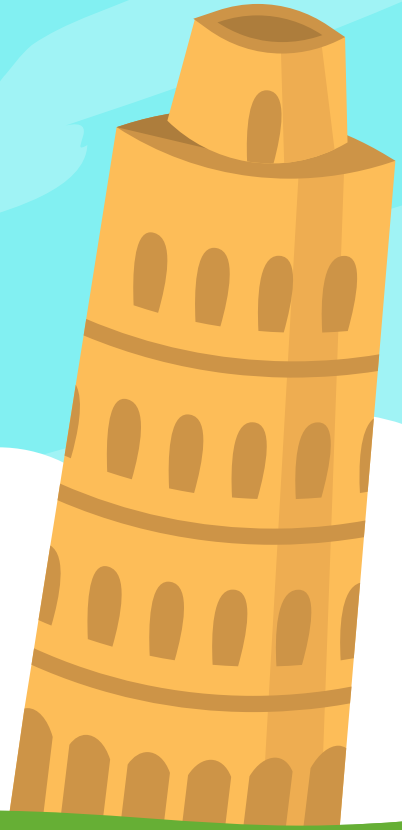

Prohodna Cave, nestled in Bulgaria's limestone mountains, captivates explorers seeking adventure. Known as the "Thoroughfare Cave," it features Bulgaria's longest cave passage. As visitors enter, daylight gradually fades into dimness.

Within this natural cathedral, distinctive rock formations carved by ages of erosion dominate the space. These imposing stone structures evoke various interpretations - some perceive gateways to other realms, while others see remnants of ancient ceremonial sites.

QUESTION 5

The silent formations, with their mysterious concave features that seem to perceive the changing light across millennia, continue to inspire wonder and speculation about their origins and significance.

What is the unique formation being spoken about?

ANSWERS

AV
ROUND

QUESTION 1

In a highly popular Marvel movie, India's CBFC censored a dialogue delivered by a native African, citing that it may be misinterpreted by the audiences. It was partly due to the fact that this character was later defeated in battle; that may indicate disrespect. Legend has it that when the Ethiopian king Selassie was presented with the book of _____ (9), he replied that he had already read it and that they are ____(4) ites, indicating their strong links to Vedic folklore. In a similar way, Africa was known as X in Vedic literature.

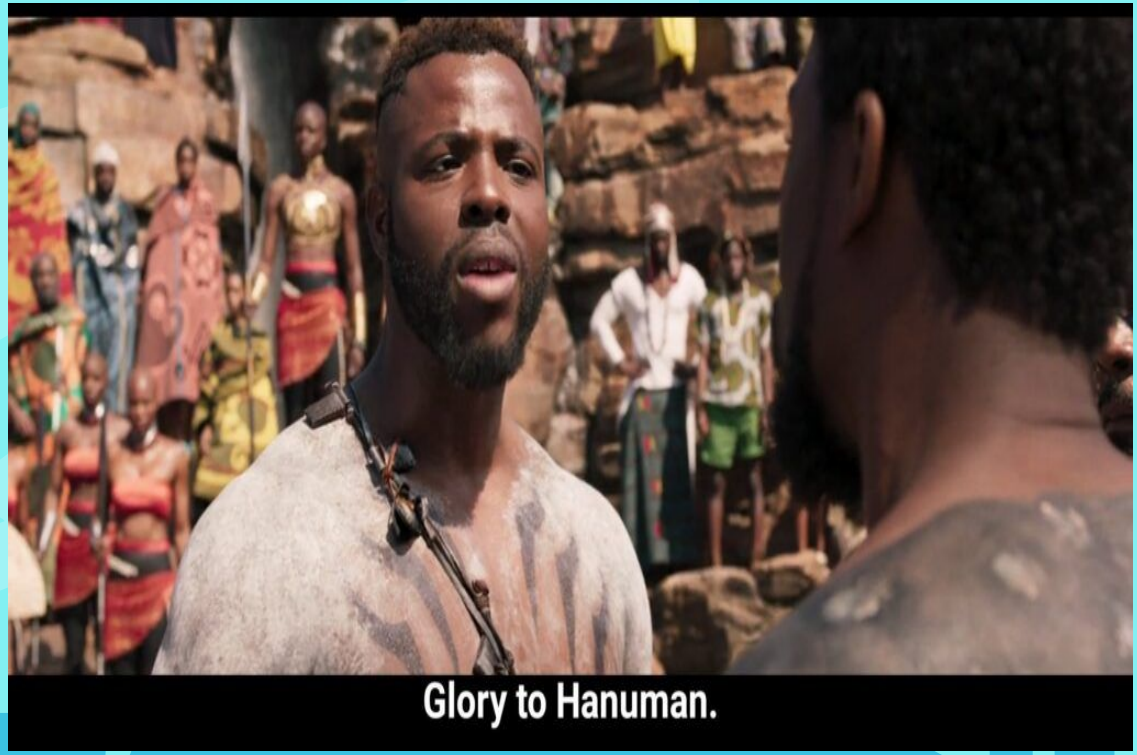

ID X and the dialogue.

VIDEO

ANSWER

X: Kushadweep

QUESTION 2

In the city of Wroclaw, a popular tourist activity is hunting Xs, which first appeared in 2005. What started with an anti-communist sentiment among the people has now virtually taken over the city. In 2022, an X dedicated to an Indian poet par excellence was unveiled by the city, signifying strong Indo-Polish relations.

ID X and the Indian Poet.

(Image in the next slide)

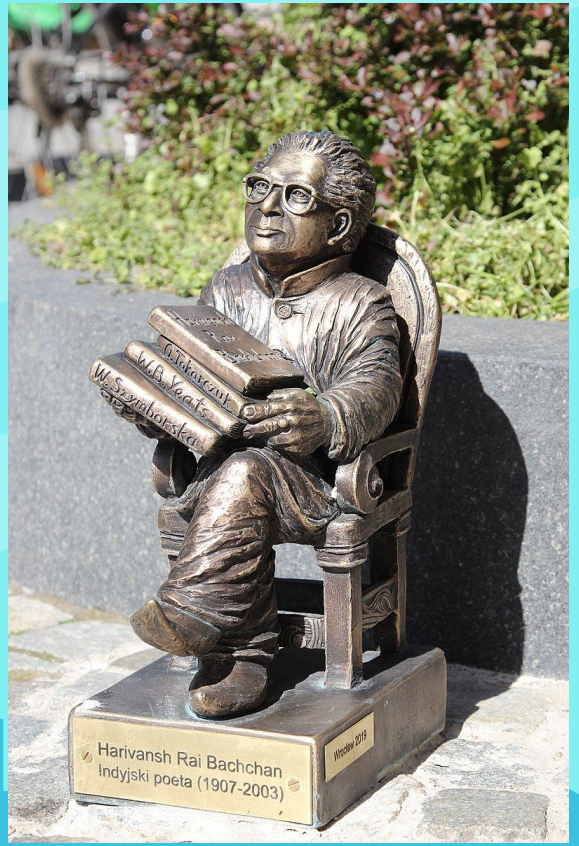

IMAGE

ANSWER

The Wroclaw Dwarves or Gnomes

Poet: Harivanshrai Bachchan

QUESTION 3

Martin Waldseemuller's 1507 map was the first to depict something honoring the explorer Amerigo Vespucci. This map is considered one of the most important maps in the world and is also referred to as ___ which literally describes the depiction

What is it referred as and why?

(Image in the next slide)

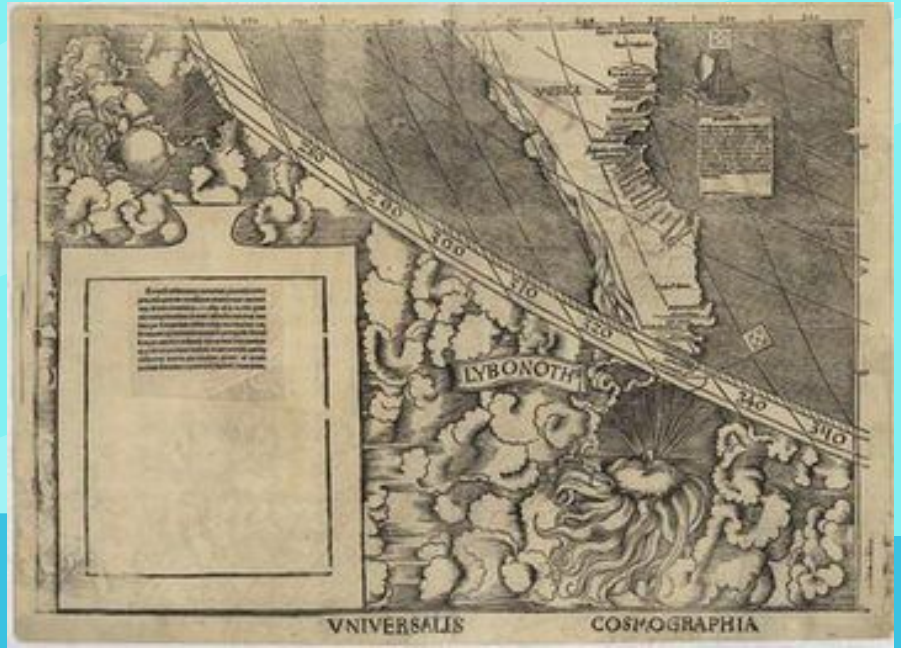

QUESTION 3

AMERICI VESPVCI
ASIA
VNIVERSALIS COSMOGRAPHIA
SECVNDVM PTHOLOMEI TRADITIONEM
ET AMERICI VESPVCII ALIORVM
LVSTRATIONES

ANSWER

First map to represent America as separate continent

It is also called as Birth Certificate of America

QUESTION 4

This flag design, which was chosen to be the national flag through a local competition, makes a clear statement about the island of Nauru. The white star's position near the hoist corresponds to a specific characteristic of the island, aligning with the flag's overall symbolic design.

Explain what the flag describes about Nauru.

(Image in the next slide)

QUESTION 4

ANSWER

Nauru is located just South of the equator, and West of the dateline

QUESTION 5

The character in this video is named after Bossa Nova musician Vinicius de Moraes, one of the writers of “The Girl From Ipanema.” This character witnessed a rebound in the fortunes for his country as they rose against odds and triumphed at home against a feared foe. It gave a new enthusiasm in the next generation about ____, which is practically a religion in his country.

ID the significance of this character and the victory being talked about here.

(Video in the next slide)

QUESTION 5

ANSWER

This is the Rio Olympics 2016 Mascot; Brazil defeated Germany in this tournament to clinch Gold

QUESTION 6

In 1914, a famous expedition led by an explorer set out on a daring mission to achieve a groundbreaking feat. However, disaster struck when the expedition's ship became trapped in _____ and was eventually crushed, forcing the crew to abandon ship.

Despite the extreme conditions and isolation, the leader's extraordinary navigation skills and leadership ensured that every crew member survived.
The crew embarked on a dangerous journey across treacherous waters and barren landscapes to reach safety, a story that is now legendary.

In 2022, over a century later, the shipwreck was finally discovered.

ID this expedition. (Brownie points for naming the ship as well)

QUESTION 6

ANSWER

Expedition: To Antartica

Ship’s name: Endurance

QUESTION 7

There is a particular visual identity in the clip which symbolises the vibrance and energy of this city.

It stems from the fusion of cultures in the city. However, due to recent safety concerns, this iconic identity aesthetic, immortalised in many movies and TV shows is dwindling.

ID the iconic identity and the city

QUESTION 7

ANSWER

Iconic identity: Neon Lights

City: Hongkong

ATLAS

QUESTION 1

During Ramadan, Muslims fast from dawn to dusk. The fasting period is determined by the sun's movement, which is caused by the Earth's rotation.

The timing of fasting in the X located in the Middle East is based on the sun's movement and the local time of Y. The X has different time zones for prayer and fasting, depending on where you are standing as the time of sunsets changes according to ___ .

ID X and Y. (Y goes into ATLAS)

ANSWER

X - Burj Khalifa

Y- Dubai

QUESTION 2

The image in the following slide shows a map.

ID what the map represents.

(The Proper Noun goes into ATLAS)

QUESTION 2

ATLANTIC OCEAN
EUROPE
SPAIN
Grenada
Tangier
Algiers
Fès
Marrakech
Mediterranean Sea
Black Sea
Constantinople
TURKEY
Astrakhan
Aral Sea
Caspian Sea
Tabriz
Tigris
IRAN
Samarkand
Esfahan
Kabul
ASIA
Beijing
CHINA
Damascus
Baghdad
Jerusalem
Alexandria
Cairo
Nile
Basra
Shiraz
Delhi
Ganges
HIMALAYAS
Quanzhou
Chittagong
Guangzhou
Sahara Desert
MALI
Oualáta
Timbuktu
Bamako
Niger
AFRICA
Medina
Mecca
ARABIA
Aden
ARABIAN SEA
INDIA
Bay of Bengal
INDOCHINA
South China Sea
Calicut
Ceylon
Maldive Islands
Mogadishu
KENYA
Mombasa
Kilwa
INDIAN OCEAN
Singapore
Borneo
Sumatra
1325–27
1332–46
1330–32
1349–53
0 500 1000 mi
0 800 1600 km
A COMPTON'S MAP

ANSWER

Voyages of Ibn Battuta

QUESTION 3

The phrase X, coined by James Truslow Adams, in 1930s has had multiple meanings over time.

In the initial phases, it meant having democracy and liberty. It eventually became a vision for achieving material wealth. Critics argued that X causes multiple problems like decrease in labour in multiple countries, and urged people not to fall into the trap.

ID X.

ANSWER

X -American Dream

QUESTION 4

X is the oldest city in its country _____ (5). Established by the Greeks in 600 BC, X has long served as a thriving port and a nexus of trade and immigration throughout history. Notably, X holds the unique distinction of having the nation's national anthem named after it—the only country in the world to do so.

This honor was not merely conferred due to X's antiquity but because of the city's pivotal role in the nation's path to democracy.

Citizens of X played a key part in the democratization movement; during their protests, volunteers from the city would march to the capital, singing a song that later became the national anthem.

ID X.

ANSWER

X: Marseille

QUESTION 5

Prohodna Cave, nestled in Bulgaria's limestone mountains, captivates explorers seeking adventure. Known as the "Thoroughfare Cave," it features Bulgaria's longest cave passage. As visitors enter, daylight gradually fades into dimness.

Within this natural cathedral, distinctive rock formations carved by ages of erosion dominate the space. These imposing stone structures evoke various interpretations - some perceive gateways to other realms, while others see remnants of ancient ceremonial sites.

QUESTION 5

The silent formations, with their mysterious concave features that seem to perceive the changing light across millennia, continue to inspire wonder and speculation about their origins and significance.

What is the unique formation being spoken about?

ANSWER

Eyes of God

FOLLOW US:

instagram.com/qcnitw
facebook.com/qcnitw
youtube.com/c/QuizClubNITW

Check out more of our quizzes:

slideshare.com/QuizClubNITW

