INDIA QUIZ

🇮🇳 Jai Hind 🇮🇳

Questions

1 Prelims

RULES

- This round contains 20 questions.
- Ensure that you have filled the correct details in the Google form for answers. Only one person per team should fill the form.
- Each question carries +10 for a correct answer and no negative marks otherwise. So, feel free to guess.
- Part points will be awarded wherever applicable.
- Please refrain from any form of malpractice (ChatGPT, Googling, etc.)
- Submit the Google form only after you have answered all of your questions.
- The top 8 teams will qualify for the Final round.
- QM's discretion is final.

Sample Question

The logo shown alongside is of a former financial entity. It is a perfect example of a visual representation that reflects the cultural ethos of a particular city after which it is named.

Identify the city that is/will be in the news for another month, and explain what this logo represents.

Answer

Allahabad Bank.
The logo represents the Triveni Sangam, i.e. confluence of the 3 rivers (Ganga, Yamuna and Saraswati).

Question 1

X are used to showcase a story or a scene to display the uniqueness of a region. The selection process of X is quite lengthy. For this, the Ministry of Defence sets up an expert committee of people from different fields such as art, culture, painting, sculpture, music, architecture, choreography, etc. Afterwards, a thorough analysis is done on these proposals received from ministries and departments. Various technologically advanced elements like LEDs, mechatronics or robots, 3D printing, nowadays AI, and Virtual Reality are also used in the X.

ID X.

Question 2

The corporation's launch programme of its seven new services to expand its innovation capabilities and reliability across the country also unveiled the new logo and tagline, which is meant to be a symbol of strength, trust and nationwide outreach. While the new backdrop symbolizes warmth and inclusivity, the bold tagline highlights their unwavering mission to bridge the digital divide in urban and rural areas.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 2

This change had quickly raised eyebrows, with several political houses pointing out the government's attempt to imprint its beliefs on the corporation by switching the logo's colours to that of its party.

Identify the context.

Question 3

Put Funda/peculiarity behind this image.

Question 4

The fabric X is believed to have originated in the ancient city of Iraq during the 7th century. However, its production later flourished in India, particularly in the regions of Bengal and Dhaka. The Mughal emperors played a significant role in the flourishing of X production. This fabric was so refined that it was said to be almost translucent in nature, and it was often used to create luxurious garments for the royal courts.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 4

However, with the British demand for Indian cotton, combined with the importation of mass-produced European fabrics, there was a decline in the handloom production of X in India leading to collapse of the tradition.

ID the fabric X.

Question 5

Every year, people gather at X to witness a unique sound-making ceremony at midnight. But this year it went viral on social media platforms, and a lot of buzz was heard surrounding the event. Someone might have mistaken it as the sound of conch, but it wasn't. It resembled to the maritime practices where sea vessels blow their horns at full volume. X being made in exuberant Italian Gothic style, the reverberations against its stone walls created such a distinctive experience.

ID X and what was the uniqueness of such ceremony?

Question 6

Music composers are often given the same status as God but this particular composer, X, shared similar features like the God.
Telugu media baron Mr. Rao had liked X's work and got him to compose for a number of films produced by him. However, X had a disagreement with one of the directors and wanted to opt out. This move displeased Rao, who might have thought of it as unprofessional. One of his associates thought its better to replace him with a new composer Y who had a hit album 'Sur'.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 6

But there was a problem which made a very important revelation about X. In 2022, X took India's name to global level when one of his composition got selected for ___(5).

ID X and the revelation.

Question 7

In 2024, a _____(6) was inaugurated in the library of India's paramount court, which was viewed as an Indianized version of a concept established by the British. A significant change was seen in the _____(6), which represents that everyone is equal before law. However, when the Atul Subhash Case came to light, many people stated that the Indian legal system is incapable of distinguishing between right and wrong, especially when the accused is female.

How does the new version differ from the older one?

Question 8

The infamous ₹1 silver coin issued by the British India government in 1911 was met with much ridicule in the country. The one-rupee coin released by the British Raj over a century ago, was not accepted by the people, as they felt that the feet and short tail of the intended figure resembled X, which is considered unclean in Indian culture.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 8

Of the 9 crore coins that were minted, only 7 lakhs were issued, and the government was forced to withdraw them from circulation. Ultimately, public outcry led to the British Raj withdrawing the ‘X rupee,’ as it came to be known.

ID X.

Question 9

X is a brand that recently went through an unconventional change. Some people online actually theorized about it being a ____(8) mistake while some speculated that it may be related to an upcoming partnership with a famous personality.
The latter part was actually true as the Y championship was about to start and there couldn't be a better timing to announce the partnership with the player Z who was a famous contender in this championship.

ID the brand X and the change.

Question 10

This structure is built primarily from basalt, giving it the distinctive dark hue that has earned it the moniker .....(3 words). The central dome, flanked by minarets, resembles the Y, though in a more subdued and intimate setting.
Burhanpur, an important city during the Mughal era, was initially considered as the site for an iconic architectural marvel Y, but the site was ultimately abandoned due to certain challenges.

FITB and why was Y supposed to be built in Burhanpur?

(image on next slide)

Question 10

Question 11

Often, people land on various social media platforms to express their disappointment regarding a recurring experience they face during their journey. To address this exorbitant situation, the government had launched various initiatives aimed at ensuring consistent ___(5) across all Xs. On the occasion of the 8th anniversary of a particular scheme to enhance regional connectivity, the government launched this initiative to resolve these persistent challenges.

ID the initiative.

Question 12

After re-developing the entire temple corridor in X, the government decided to take it to another level by launching the world's longest ___ __(5,6) from X. This initiative, started in early 2023, aimed to tap into the immense potential of this type of journey, utilising the expansive 3,200 km network. Such a concept was previously unseen in India, unlike Europe.

What is being talked about?

Question 13

There are multiple theories which suggest the etymological origins of X (the erstwhile name for a place). Historians say before colonists made Goa their final base, they had sizeable presence in X. During that period, they established a church here whose name literally translated to 'Mother of God'.
Some claim it might be related to a character of the Mahabharata.
A third theory suggests that this place might have been famous for honey cultivation, thus struck the name.

ID X.

Question 14

This is one of the paintings by X, sold for a whooping 1.8 crores. A self taught artist, X is a multifaceted personality. However, the Government of India was not sure whether someone actually paid 1.8 crore for X's painting and demanded a CBI probe. X criticised the government and also wanted to move to court if required.

ID X.

(image on next slide)

Question 14

Question 15

X has been grown in India since the 16th century, but the concept of X Y began to gain some popularity only in the 18th century in Madras and Calcutta. However, as part of the racial discrimination policy of the British rulers, Indians were not allowed into these X Y, which were mainly European-only establishments. During the late 1890s, the idea of an _____ was floated, and the first of its kind was opened in Churchgate, Bombay. Since then, Indians have been visiting its 400+ outlets spread all across the country.

ID X and Y.

Question 16

The Kumbh Mela is considered to be the largest human congregation in the entire world. Occurring once every 12 years across 4 different locations in a single cycle, faith and devotion associated with it makes the Mela a crowd puller.

However the 1942 Kumbh Mela is said to have recorded a sharply lower attendance as compared to the previous decades. The British Raj restricted 'human and resources' movement across the region on the pretext of 'security concerns'. This is because of a major event which happened in the previous year on the other side of the world.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 16

However if one were to believe historians, the reasons that were attributed to stamp down were apparently false rumours spread by the British against their enemies.

ID the major event and the reason given.

Question 17

Adopting a pen name is a fairly prevalent practice among Indian writers, especially during the Romantic Era. The Urdu poets of the 18th and 19th centuries carried on the tradition and elevated it to new heights. Urdu poets began utilizing pen names that were intimately tied to their identity and roots, and this practice was far more popular among poets hailing from Uttar Pradesh.

What made their pen names unique?

Question 18

Shown in the image is a glimpse of an exclusive line of drinkware depicting the signature Toile de Jouy flora and fauna art prints from his Art Foundation, released by Starbucks in 2022 in collaboration with X. When asked about his contribution, X replied, "In a way Starbucks is in the business of matchmaking and we, in the business of weddings. It made complete sense."

ID X.

(image on next slide)

Question 18

Question 19

The Airport Authority of India recognizes an airport international only when it has the Custom, Immigration and Quarantine(CIQ) facility and has necessary border control facilities to handle international flights, allowing for the arrival and departure of passengers on flights to and from foreign countries. X is a domestic airport that also serves as an Indian Air Force base. In order to welcome some of the global bigwigs, it was declared an international airport for 10 days last year, attracting an unprecedented amount of media attention for the city.
ID X and the occasion.

Question 20

When water from a higher elevation is trapped between two impermeable layers, these layers create a high water pressure. When the top layer gets punctured or drilled, the water flows upward due to this intense underground pressure and flows freely without a pump. This phenomenon is called an Artesian Well. This concept was in the news recently due to an incident in India and caught people's attention. On social media platforms, this incident was allegedly connected to an ancient Indian mythological story.

What are we talking about and what is the connection made in social media?

Answers

Question 1

X are used to showcase a story or a scene to display the uniqueness of a region. The selection process of X is quite lengthy. For this, the Ministry of Defence sets up an expert committee of people from different fields of art, culture, painting, sculpture, music, architecture, choreography, etc. Afterwards, a thorough analysis is done on these proposals received from ministries and departments. Various technologically advanced elements like LEDs, mechatronics or robots, 3D printing, nowadays AI, and Virtual Reality are also used in the X.
ID X.

Answer

X - Tableaux

Question 2

The corporation's launch programme of its seven new services to expand its innovation capabilities and reliability across the country also unveiled the new logo and tagline, which is meant to be a symbol of strength, trust and, nationwide outreach. While the new backdrop symbolizes warmth and inclusivity, the bold tagline highlights their unwavering mission to bridge the digital divide in urban and rural areas.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 2

This change had quickly raised eyebrows, with several political houses pointing out the government's attempt to imprint its beliefs on the corporation by switching the logo's colours to that of its party.

Identify the context.

Answer

BSNL’s logo and tagline makeover

Question 3

Put Funda/peculiarity behind this image.

Answer

₹1 note is the only Indian Currency note to be issued by the Government of India and signed by the Finance Secretary. The rest are issued by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) and signed by the RBI Governor.

Question 4

The fabric X is believed to have originated in the ancient city of Iraq during the 7th century. However, its production later flourished in India, particularly in the regions of Bengal and Dhaka. The Mughal emperors played a significant role in the flourishing of X production. This fabric was so refined that it was said to be almost translucent in nature, and it was often used to create luxurious garments for the royal courts.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 4

However, with the British demand for Indian cotton, combined with the importation of mass-produced European fabrics, there was a decline in the handloom production of X in India leading to collapse of the tradition.

ID the fabric X.

Answer

Muslin cloth

Question 5

Every year, people gather at X to witness a unique sound-making ceremony at midnight. But this year it went viral on social media platforms, and a lot of buzz was heard surrounding the event. Someone might have mistaken it as the sound of conch, but it's not. It resembled to the maritime practices where sea vessels blow their horns at full volume. X being made in exuberant Italian Gothic style, the reverberations against its stone walls created such a distinctive experience.

ID X and what was the uniqueness of such ceremony?

Answer

X - CSMT

Local trains honking together to celebrate New year

Question 6

Music composers are often given the same status as God but this particular composer, X, shared similar features like the God.
Telugu media baron Mr. Rao had liked X's work and got him to compose for a number of films produced by him. However, X had a disagreement with one of the directors and wanted to opt out. This move displeased Rao, who might have thought of it as unprofessional. One of his associates thought its better to replace him with a new composer Y, who had a hit album 'Sur'.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 6

But there was a problem which made a very important revelation about X. In 2022, X took India's name to global level when one of his composition got selected for ___(5).

ID X and the revelation.

Answer

X - M.M. Keeravani
X and Y are same person

Question 7

In 2024, a _____(6) was inaugurated in the library of India's paramount court, which was viewed as an Indianized version of a concept established by the British. A significant change was seen in the _____(6), which represents that everyone is equal before law. However, when the Atul Subhash Case came to light, many people stated that the Indian legal system is incapable of distinguishing between right and wrong, especially when the accused is female.

How does the new version differ from the older one?

Answer

The blindfold was removed from the statue of justice lady

Question 8

The infamous ₹1 silver coin issued by the British India government in 1911 was met with much ridicule in the country. The one-rupee coin released by the British Raj over a century ago, was not accepted by the people, as they felt that the feet and short tail of the intended figure resembled X, which is considered unclean in Indian culture.

(contd. on next slide)

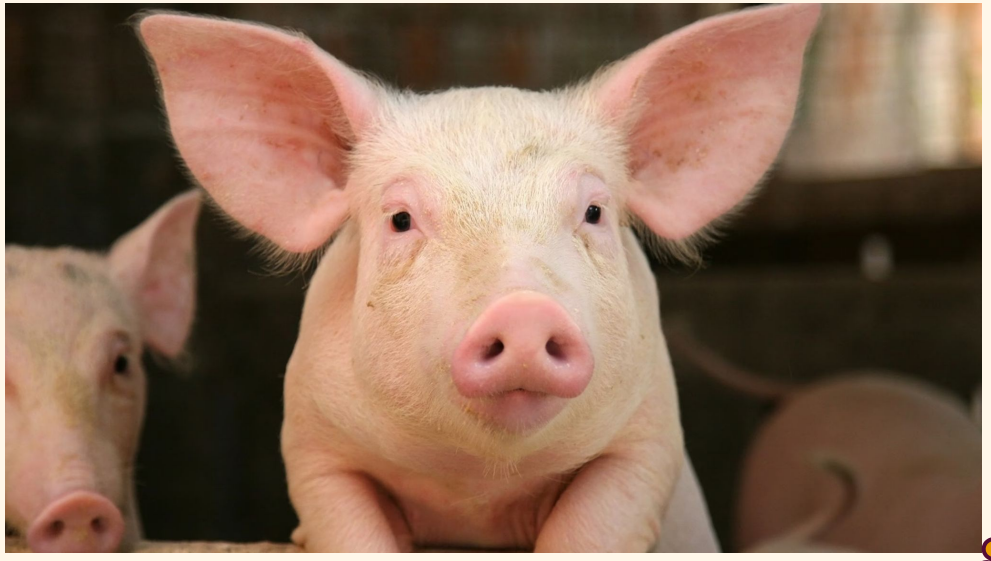
Question 8

Of the 9 crore coins that were minted, only 7 lakhs were issued, and the government was forced to withdraw them from circulation. Ultimately, public outcry led to the British Raj withdrawing the ‘X rupee,’ as it came to be known.

ID X.

Answer

X - Pig



Question 9

X is a brand that recently went through an unconventional change. Some people online actually theorized about it being a ____(8) mistake while some speculated that it may be related to an upcoming partnership with a famous personality.
The latter part was actually true as the Y championship is currently going on and there couldn't be a better timing to announce the partnership with the player Z who is a famous contender in this championship.

ID the brand X and the change.

Answer

Y-Indian Open Badminton Championship

Z-PV Sindhu

X- PUMA =>PVMA

Question 10

This structure is built primarily from basalt, giving it the distinctive dark hue that has earned it the moniker .....(3 words). The central dome, flanked by minarets, resembles the Y, though in a more subdued and intimate setting.
Burhanpur, an important city during the Mughal era, was initially considered as the site for an iconic architectural marvel Y, but the site was ultimately abandoned due to certain challenges.

FITB and why was Y supposed to be built in Burhanpur?

(image on next slide)

Question 10

Answer

Blank- Black Taj Mahal

Because Shah Jahan’s wife Mumtaz died in Burhanpur.

Question 11

Often, people land on various social media platforms to express their disappointment regarding a recurring experience they face during their journey. To address this exorbitant situation, the government had launched various initiatives aimed at ensuring consistent ___(5) across all Xs. On the occasion of the 8th anniversary of a particular scheme to enhance regional connectivity, the government launched this initiative to resolve these persistent challenges.

ID the initiative.

Answer

Launch of Udan Yatri cafe to provide snacks at an affordable price.

Question 12

After re-developing the entire temple corridor in X, the government decided to take it to another level by launching the world's longest ___ __(5,6) from X. This initiative, started in early 2023, aimed to tap into the immense potential of this type of journey utilising the expansive 3,200 km network. Such a concept was previously unseen in India, unlike Europe.

What is being talked about?

Answer

Blank - River Cruise
Ganga Vilas touring the regions of Brahmaputra river from Varanasi to Dibrugarh.

Question 13

There are multiple theories which suggest the etymological origins of X (the erstwhile name for a place). Historians say before colonists made Goa their final base, they had sizeable presence in X. During that period, they established a church here whose name literally translated to 'Mother of God'.
Some claim it might be related to a character of the Mahabharata.
A third theory suggests that this place might have been famous for honey cultivation, thus struck the name.

ID X.

Answer

X - Madras

- ‘Madre de Deus’ meaning ‘Mother of God’ in Portuguese.
- Madri (mother of Nakul and Sahadev in the Mahabharata).
- ‘Madhu Rasa’ meaning ‘honey’ in Sanskrit and other languages.

Question 14

This is one of the paintings by X, sold for a whooping 1.8 crores. A self taught artist, X is a multifaceted personality. However, the Government of India was not sure whether someone actually paid 1.8 crore for X's painting and demanded a CBI probe. X criticised the government and also wanted to move to court if required.

ID X.

(image on next slide)

Question 14

Answer

X - Mamata Banerjee

Question 15

X has been grown in India since the 16th century, but the concept of X Y began to gain some popularity only in the 18th century in Madras and Calcutta. However, as part of the racial discrimination policy of the British rulers, Indians were not allowed into these X Y, which were mainly European-only establishments. During the late 1890s, the idea of an _____ was floated, and the first of its kind was opened in Churchgate, Bombay. Since then, Indians have been visiting its 400+ outlets spread all across the country.

ID X and Y.

Answer

X-Coffee

Y- House

Question 16

The Kumbh Mela is considered to be the largest human congregation in the entire world. Occurring once every 12 years across 4 different locations in a single cycle, faith and devotion associated with it makes the Mela a crowd puller.

However the 1942 Kumbh Mela is said to have recorded a sharply lower attendance as compared to the previous decades. The British Raj restricted 'human and resources' movement across the region on the pretext of 'security concerns'. This is because of a major event which happened in the previous year on the other side of the world.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 16

However if one were to believe historians, the reasons that were attributed to the stamp down were apparently false rumours spread by the British against their enemies.

ID the major event and the reason given.

Answer

Major Event- Pearl Harbour Attack

They made people believe that Japan would bomb the city to inflict heavy casualties.

Question 17

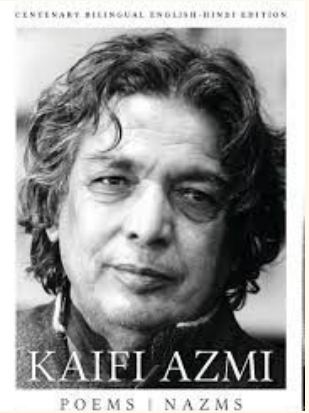
Adopting a pen name is a fairly prevalent practice among Indian writers, especially during the Romantic Era. The Urdu poets of the 18th and 19th centuries carried on the tradition and elevated it to new heights. Urdu poets began utilizing pen names that were intimately tied to their identity and roots, and this practice was far more popular among poets hailing from Uttar Pradesh.

What made their pen names unique?

Answer

The poets began writing the name of their native cities in their pen names.

Eg.- Majrooh Sultanpuri, Kaifi Azmi, Jigar Moradabadi



Question 18

Shown in the image is a glimpse of an exclusive line of drinkware depicting the signature Toile de Jouy flora and fauna art prints from his Art Foundation, released by Starbucks in 2022 in collaboration with X. When asked about his contribution, X replied, "In a way Starbucks is in the business of matchmaking and we, in the business of weddings. It made complete sense."

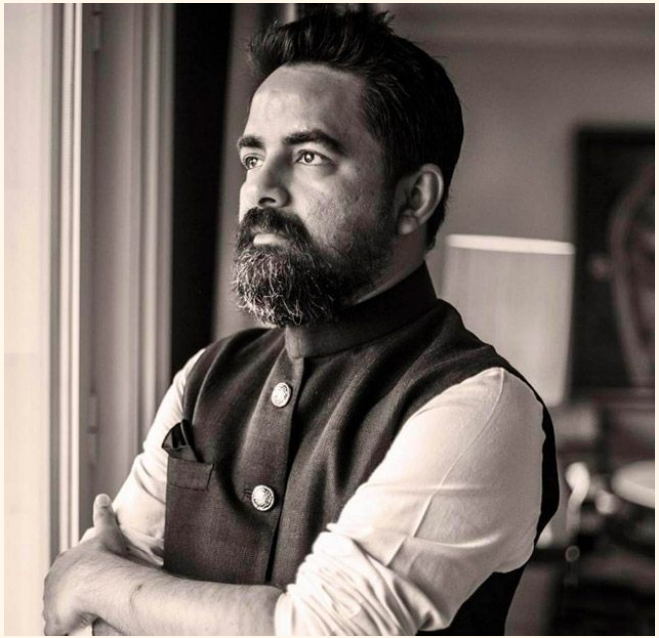
ID X.

(image on next slide)

Question 18

Answer

X - Sabyasachi



Question 19

The Airport Authority of India recognizes an airport international only when it has the Custom, Immigration and Quarantine(CIQ) facility and has necessary border control facilities to handle international flights, allowing for the arrival and departure of passengers on flights to and from foreign countries. X is a domestic airport that also serves as an Indian Air Force base. In order to welcome some of the global bigwigs, it was declared an international airport for 10 days last year, attracting an unprecedented amount of media attention for the city.
ID X and the occasion.

Answer

X - Jamnagar Airport

Anant Ambani’s pre-wedding ceremony

Question 20

When water from a higher elevation is trapped between two impermeable layers, these layers create a high water pressure. When the top layer gets punctured or drilled, the water flows upward due to this intense underground pressure and flows freely without a pump. This phenomenon is called an Artesian Well. This concept was in the news recently due to an incident in India and caught people's attention. On social media platforms, this incident was allegedly connected to an ancient Indian mythological story.

What are we talking about and what is the connection made in social media?

Answer

Huge waterflow out in Jaisalmer due to borewell drilling
Connection - River Saraswati

Thanks!

FOLLOW US

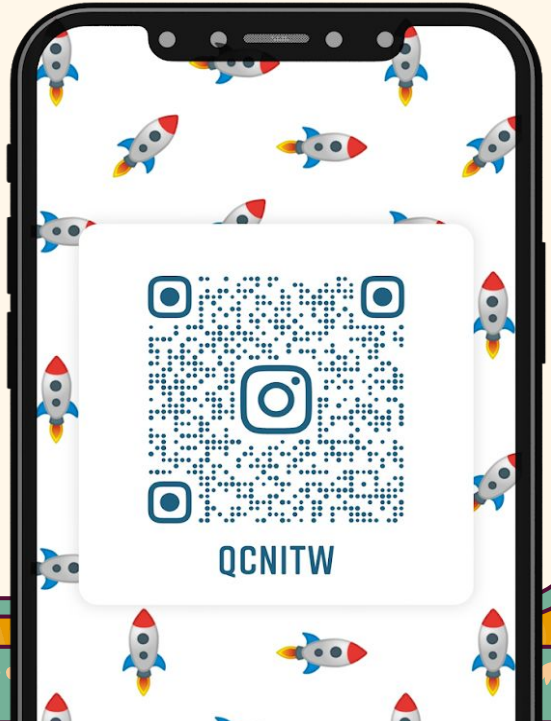
instagram.com/qcnitw

youtube.com/c/QuizClubNITW

facebook.com/qcnitw

Check out more of our quizzes on:

https://www.slideshare.net/QuizClubNITW/



2

Finals

1

Pounce Bounce

RULES

- This round consists of 8 Pounce/Bounce questions.
- Pounce has a scoring scheme of +10/-5 and Bounce has a scoring scheme of +10/0.
- Directs will be to the teams corresponding to the question number.
- There will be part points only for Bounce and not on Pounce.
- Message the team moderator assigned to you to Pounce on a question.
- Bounce will be done in the meet itself.
- QM’s discretion is final.

Question 1

X, the elder brother of the very famous Y, broke barriers under British rule as he became the ____ . Just like his brother, X was a poet, writer, and composer.

He went to London at the age of 21 to become ____ . Despite a difficult process that favoured British applicants, he was successful. In addition to earning a spot in the ____, X cleared the path for other Indians to aspire to serve their own nation.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 1

However, the path wasn't simple. Everyday struggles included cultural isolation and racial discrimination. But he persevered and prospered because of his unwavering spirit and intelligence.

ID Y and the first blank.

Answer

X - Satyendranath Tagore, Y - Rabindranath Tagore

Blank - 1st Indian IAS officer

He went to London to write the IAS (then ICS) exam

Question 2

Amid all the hustle and bustle of _ (6) , the X stands by the sea as a reflection of luxury, sophistication and service. X has stood the test of time and is a major part of early 2000s Indian history as well.
X has made history again by being the first Indian building to obtain Y. As Y act came into force during the late 1990s, the Y of an architectural masterpiece has never been attempted.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 2

With the acquired title, X has joined elite buildings like the Empire State Building in New York, the Eiffel Tower in Paris and Sydney Opera House. This was done to protect the distinctiveness of the building as mentioned by a reputed person.

ID X and Y.

Answer

X - Taj Mahal Palace Hotel

Y - Trademark

Question 3

During the late 1970s, the iconic Eden Gardens in Kolkata was jam-packed for an important match between X's team and another iconic Indian team Y. The stadium was filled to the rafters for a ___ match or more particularly, because just about anybody who could get a ticket or a pass had come to watch the legend X in action.
The impressive match between X's team and Y ended in a draw. It was X's penultimate match as a professional and he retired from all forms of the game a few days later.

ID the legendary player and the opposing team.

Answer

Player - Pele
Opposing Team - Mohun Bagan

Question 4

The practice of using Xs in Govt Offices is common and has been around for a long time.
As per certain theories, the reason behind this could date back to the days of the British Raj. The Officials, who were born and brought up in the Temperate climate of the British Isles, found it very suffocating to work in India. Hence they started using X(s) to keep a tap on heat and sweat.

What practice is being talked about, which one would associate with Politicians and Bureaucrats alike?

Answer

Draping the chairs with Turkish/white towels.

Question 5

A few years ago, a certain Hindi word X's rising prominence in the country was ascribed to:

- Abrogation of two key provisions that granted special status to Jammu and Kashmir.
- Key rulings of the Supreme Court including the removal of entry restriction for women at Sabarimala and affirming the order to disqualify seventeen MLAs of Karnataka Legislative Assembly under the anti-defection law, among others.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 5

Consequently, X set itself apart from the submissions, and a specialist from this UK-based university's press deemed it a fitting recognition, as it reflected the mood of the people and decision-makers, changing the _____ from an academic concept to a movement in real time.

ID X and the recognition.

Answer

X - Samvidhaan

Oxford Hindi word of the year (in 2019)

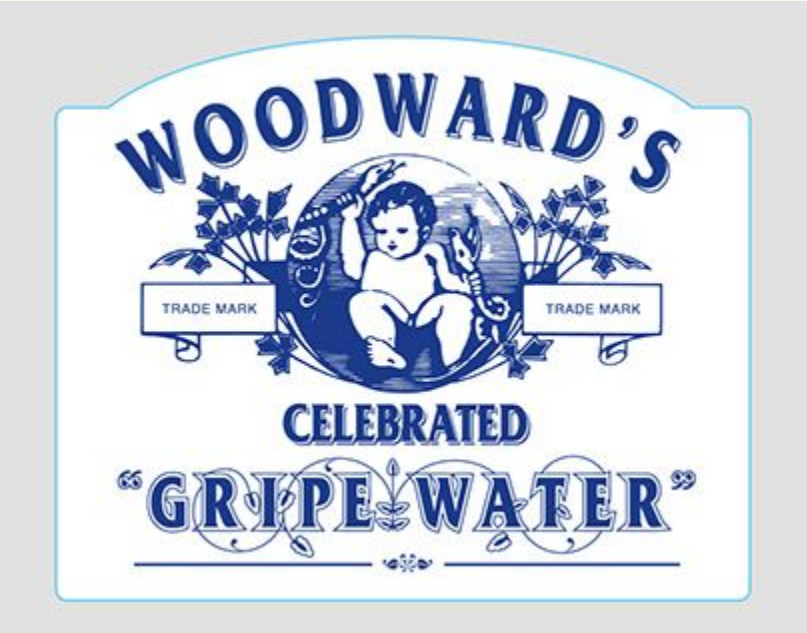
Question 6

The Woodward's sparks nostalgia amongst many of us. Its logo depicts an infant Hercules strangling a creature to tell the consumers about its effectiveness. However when the brand forayed into the Indian market, it decided to localize its advertisement campaign to garner the attention of the local folk.

Hence, what did it do associate itself with the natives, while at the same time maintaining its originality?

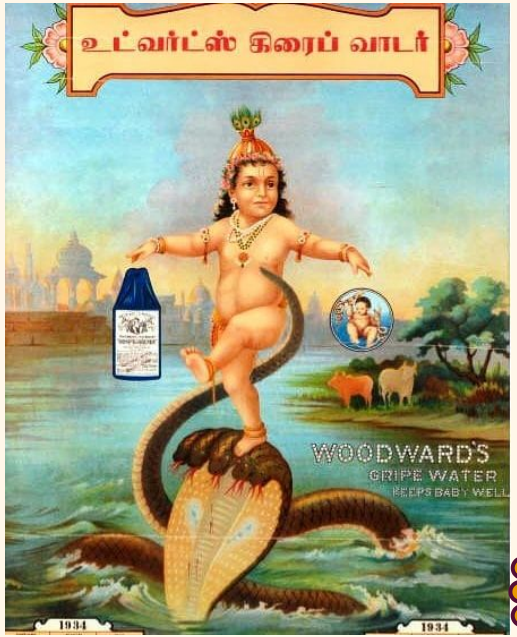
(image on next slide)

Question 6



Answer

It depicted child Krishna defeating the demon-snake Kalia in the advertisement.



Question 7

This popular Sohar track, characterized by its lively Bhojpuri folk fusion incorporating traditional instruments like tabla, manjira, and harmonium, usually sung during son's birth, popular in the villages of Bihar and Uttar Pradesh, has quickly become an anthem for families across India. Gaining widespread fame through an online drama released last year, the song's Hindi lyrics vividly express the ambitious dreams families have for their cherished children whom they treat as Raja of Family or Star of India, envisioning them rising from district officers to Chief Ministers and even Prime Ministers.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 7

Beyond these grand aspirations, the song highlights the unconditional love parents have for their children, serving as an uplifting reminder that these children will always be the brightest stars.

Identity the song and the entity through with it gained fame.

Answer

Song:- Hind ke Sitara
Panchayat Season 3.

Question 8

Santa-Maria is a weed species that originated in the West Indies and Tropical America. It has very minute brown seeds, which allows it to spread quickly. Because of its poisonous nature, animals cannot swallow it, resulting in a rapid proliferation of this weed. This plant was not found in India prior to independence, but it was first discovered in Maharashtra in the 1950s, and within 5 years it had spread throughout the country, affecting the agricultural sector, and the layman began calling it _____ (8) grass as a sign of anger against the system.

FITB and how this species got to India?

Answer

Blank- Congress

The seeds of this weed were mixed in the wheat imported from USA in the 1950s.

2

Qissa Connects ka

RULES

- This round contains 6 Connect questions.
- You have to identify the connection between the given images or the given names.
- Each question carries +10 for a correct answer and no negative marks otherwise. Feel free to guess.
- Compile your answers and message it to the moderator assigned to you.
- QMs discretion is final.

Questions

Question 1

Connect:

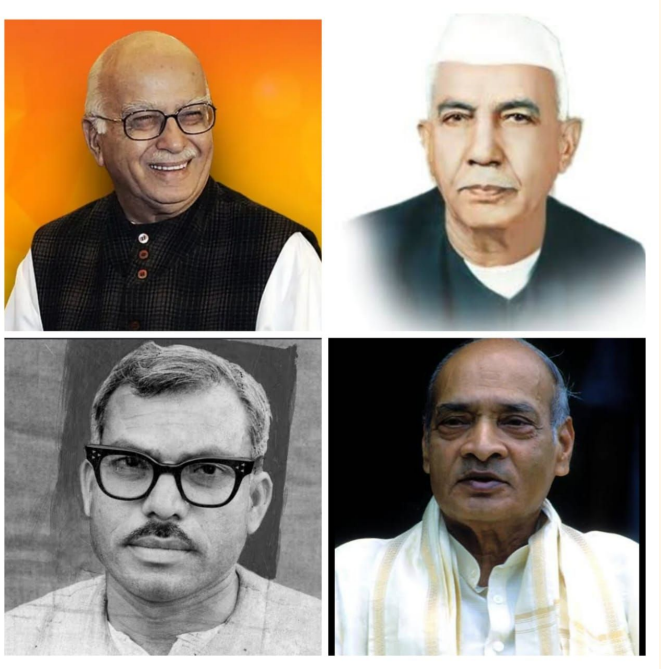
- Prayagraj
- Bilaspur
- Ahmedabad
- Kochi
- Jabalpur
- Cuttack
- Jodhpur
- Nainital

Question 2

Connect:

Question 3

Connect:



(contd. on next slide)

Question 3

Question 4

Connect:

Question 5

Connect:

Question 6

Connect:

- Shaurya
- Sasha
- Uday
- Daksha
- Tejas
- Suraj
- Pawan
- Gamini
- Dhatri
- Jwala

Answers

Question 1

Connect:

- Prayagraj
- Bilaspur
- Ahmedabad
- Kochi
- Jabalpur
- Cuttack
- Jodhpur
- Nainital

Answer

Cities which host the seat of Jurisdiction in states i.e. High Courts, instead of the respective state capital.

Question 2

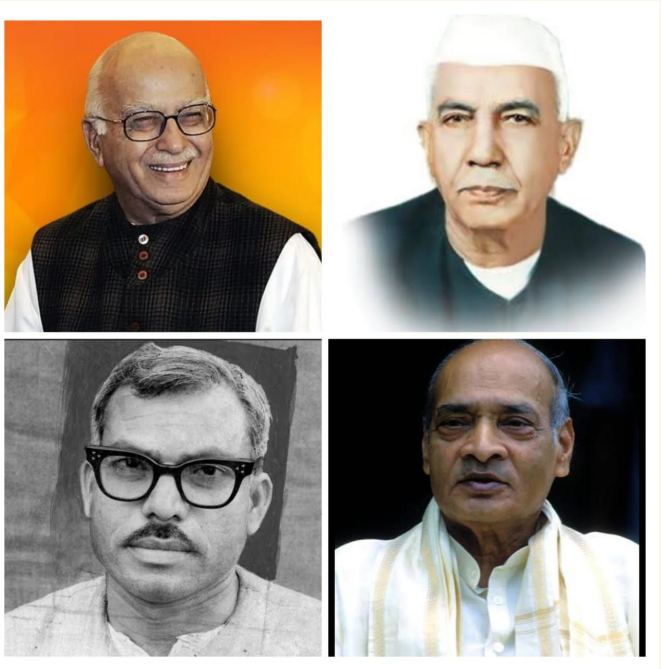
Connect:

Answer

Brahmaputra

Question 3

Connect:



(contd. on next slide)

Question 3

Answer

All these people received Bharat Ratna in 2024.

Question 4

Connect:

Answer

These people have daughters named after India

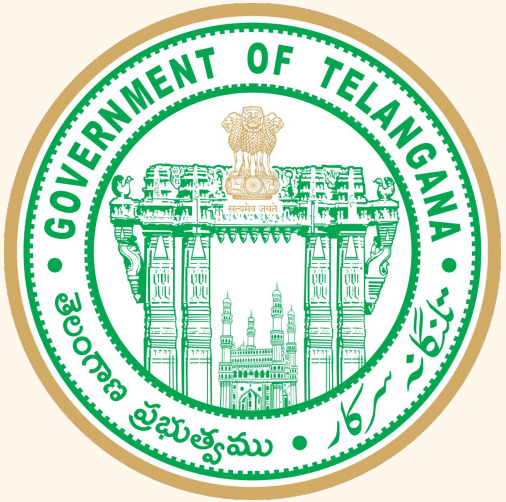
Question 5

Connect:

Answer

Monuments or Symbols present on Government Emblems of respective states.

- Kakatiya Kala Thoranam - Telangana
- Gandaberunda - Karnataka
- Kanglasha - Manipur
- Srivilliputhur Andal Temple - TamilNadu



Question 6

Connect:

- Shaurya
- Sasha
- Uday
- Daksha
- Tejas
- Suraj
- Pawan
- Gamini
- Dhatri
- Jwala

Answer

Names of cheetahs died in Kanha National Park.

3 Kahani Mandiron ki ...

RULES

- This round consists of 6 questions based on the temples of our country.
- Each question carries +10 for a correct answer and no negative marks otherwise. Feel free to guess.
- Compile your answers and message it to the moderator assigned to you.
- Please refrain from any form of malpractice (ChatGPT, Googling, etc.)
- QMs discretion is final.

Questions

Question 1

A certain temple in eastern India sets it apart from the other temples by a unique convention followed here, which has grabbed the eyeballs of common folk.

According to local historians, due to the civil war in a neighbouring country in the 1940s, many citizens of that country sought refuge in India, thus settling in this part of the country. They adopted local customs and were able to gel with the natives. ___(7), a staple of their distinct cuisine, became a part of the temple's offerings due to the cultural practices of their society, which weren't Indic in nature.

ID the country from where these refugees originated and what was offered as prasad?

Question 2

The Varadaraja Perumal Temple in Kanchipuram, dedicated to Lord Vishnu, holds a distinctive charm that sets it apart from other temples. This temple features two fascinating carvings of X(s)—one golden and one silver—on its ceilings, and these unique carvings are believed to bring good fortune and purification from past sins when touched by devotees. However, when we encounter these creatures in our homes, we are generally cautious to avoid touching them, often guiding them outside instead.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 2

It is believed that their presence can be an ill omen if they come into contact with or fall in an inauspicious place. It is also said that X(s), with their regenerative ____(5), symbolize transformation and renewal, reflecting spiritual growth.

ID what creatures are being worshipped in this temple?

Question 3

X's documentary, Good ___(4), explores the cultural and societal perceptions of African-American women on a particular body part, addressing issues like beauty standards, and identity. He visits places such as beauty salons, scientific laboratories, and many other places and beautifully styled his research in the documentary. As part of this, X also visits an Indian temple, where the practice related to this part is deeply rooted in tradition. Many devotees believe that this symbolizes the burden of their sins.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 3

By going through a tradition, they see it as an act of purification, a way to cleanse themselves of past wrongdoings and start a new spiritual journey. He came to know that this practice contributes significantly to the temple's income and plays a major role in the global trade.

Identify the temple and tradition they follow.

Question 4

In one of the most bustling pilgrimage cities of India rests a temple quiet and tranquil that is surprisingly affiliated to no religion. Conceptualized by a freedom fighter in the pre-independence era, its inaugural was graced by the father of the nation, who admired the absence of religious deity idols in its sanctum and the sculpture that was spread out instead. Intricate carvings and scales representing the crests and troughs on the sculpture's surface, the temple has no prescribed daily ritual for the sculpture, except to immerse it in water on two specific days a year that make its features look more vibrant.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 4

The temple's simple idea was to keep the spirit of camaraderie and unity alive in the face of colonialism, but today's visitor is best left to interpret it for themselves.

What is unique about the sculpture?

Question 5

Like the Balaji Temple of Chilkur in Telangana, there is a Gurudwara in Jalandhar where people ask for approval of _____ for their higher studies/career opportunities abroad. They present a unique item to the Lord to please him and get the work done. No one knows exactly who first came up with this bizarre idea or how this all started. It's an urban legend that a group of young boys used this method to enact their prayers, thus this tradition caught on. Now the Gurudwara receives many of these as offerings on any given weekend from devotees praying for ____ acceptance.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 5

These are distributed among children by the committee if you were wondering what happens to these items at the end of the day.

What unique offering is seen in this Gurudwara?

Question 6

This temple consists of one of the Panchabhuta Lingas and is named after the 3 wild creatures who worshipped Lord Shiva here: Spider, Snake and Elephant, is known a special pooja done here. This is done to seek protection from the malefic effects of X and Y. These celestial entities are considered shadow planets and are believed to influence one's life significantly. Lord Shiva is believed to have a special connection to X and Y due to the aftermath of Samudra Manthan, making it a particularly auspicious place to perform rituals to pacify them.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 6

This pooja involves specific prayers, and offerings performed by priests, with devotees believing that by doing so, they can neutralize the negative impacts of these planets and attract positive energy into their lives.

What is being talked about here?

Answers

Question 1

A certain temple in eastern India sets it apart from the other temples by a unique convention followed here, which has grabbed the eyeballs of common folk.

According to local historians, due to the civil war in a neighbouring country in the 1940s, many citizens of that country sought refuge in India, thus settling in this part of the country. They adopted local customs and were able to gel with the natives. ___(7), a staple of their distinct cuisine, became a part of the temple's offerings due to the cultural practices of their society, which weren't Indic in nature.

ID the country from where these refugees originated and what was offered as prasad?

Answer

Country - China
Noodles were offered to the Goddess as Prasad

Question 2

The Varadaraja Perumal Temple in Kanchipuram, dedicated to Lord Vishnu, holds a distinctive charm that sets it apart from other temples. This temple features two fascinating carvings of X(s)—one golden and one silver—on its ceilings, and these unique carvings are believed to bring good fortune and purification from past sins when touched by devotees. However, when we encounter these creatures in our homes, we are generally cautious to avoid touching them, often guiding them outside instead.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 2

It is believed that their presence can be an ill omen if they come into contact with or fall in an inauspicious place. It is also said that X(s), with their regenerative ____(5), symbolize transformation and renewal, reflecting spiritual growth.

ID what creatures are being worshipped in this temple?

Answer

Lizards

Question 3

X's documentary, Good ___(4), explores the cultural and societal perceptions of African-American women on a particular body part, addressing issues like beauty standards, and identity. He visits places such as beauty salons, scientific laboratories, and many other places and beautifully styled his research in the documentary. As part of this, X also visits an Indian temple, where the practice related to this part is deeply rooted in tradition. Many devotees believe that this symbolizes the burden of their sins.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 3

By going through a tradition, they see it as an act of purification, a way to cleanse themselves of past wrongdoings and start a new spiritual journey. He came to know that this practice contributes significantly to the temple's income and plays a major role in the global trade.

Identify the temple and the tradition they follow.

Answer

Tirupati Balaji Temple and Tonsuring the hair cleanses of Sins.

Question 4

In one of the most bustling pilgrimage cities of India rests a temple quiet and tranquil that is surprisingly affiliated to no religion. Conceptualized by a freedom fighter in the pre-independence era, its inaugural was graced by the father of the nation, who admired the absence of religious deity idols in its sanctum and the sculpture that was spread out instead. Intricate carvings and scales representing the crests and troughs on the sculpture's surface, the temple has no prescribed daily ritual for the sculpture, except to immerse it in water on two specific days a year that make its features look more vibrant.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 4

The temple's simple idea was to keep the spirit of camaraderie and unity alive in the face of colonialism, but today's visitor is best left to interpret it for themselves.

What is unique about the sculpture?

Answer

The sculpture is a relief map of undivided India (Akhand Bharat).

Question 5

Like the Balaji Temple of Chilkur in Telangana, there is a Gurudwara in Jalandhar where people ask for approval of _____ for their higher studies/career opportunities abroad. They present a unique item to the Lord to please him and get the work done. No one knows exactly who first came up with this bizarre idea or how this all started. It's an urban legend that a group of young boys used this method to enact their prayers, thus this tradition caught on. Now the Gurudwara receives many of these as offerings on any given weekend from devotees praying for ____ acceptance.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 5

These are distributed among children by the committee if you were wondering what happens to these items at the end of the day.

What unique offering is seen in this Gurudwara?

Answer

Toy Aeroplanes

Question 6

This temple consists of one of the Panchabhuta Lingas and is named after the 3 wild creatures who worshipped Lord Shiva here: Spider, Snake and Elephant, is known a special pooja done here. This is done to seek protection from the malefic effects of X and Y. These celestial entities are considered shadow planets and are believed to influence one's life significantly. Lord Shiva is believed to have a special connection to X and Y due to the aftermath of Samudra Manthan, making it a particularly auspicious place to perform rituals to pacify them.

(contd. on next slide)

Question 6

This pooja involves specific prayers, and offerings performed by priests, with devotees believing that by doing so, they can neutralize the negative impacts of these planets and attract positive energy into their lives.

What is being talked about here?

Answer

Rahu Ketu Pooja in Srikalahasti Temple.

4 Apne Kaha

RULES

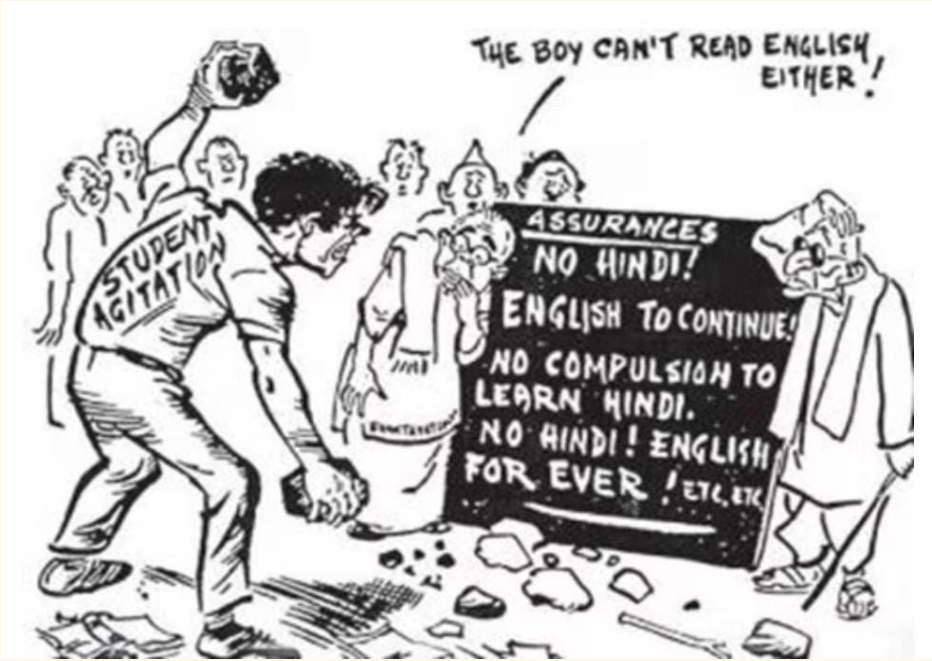
- This round is a buzzer round that consists of 5 questions based on the cartoons we see in newspapers.
- You have to identify the context for each cartoon.
- The Cosmobuzz site link will be shared with you and shall be used for the buzzer. Only 1 person from each team must operate the buzzer for their team.
- This round has a scoring scheme of +10/-5, and only the one who buzzes first will get to answer the question.
- QM's discretion is final.

Question 1

Answer

Liberalization

Question 2



THE BOY CAN'T READ ENGLISH EITHER!
STUDENT AGITATION ASSURANCES NO HINDI!
ENGLISH TO CONTINUE!
NO COMPULSION TO LEARN HINDI.
NO HINDI! ENGLISH FOR EVER! ETC, ETC

Answer

Anti Hindi Agitation in Tamil Nadu in 1960s

Question 3

Answer

India-China War of 1962.

Siachen also means ‘Land with abundance of roses’.

Question 4

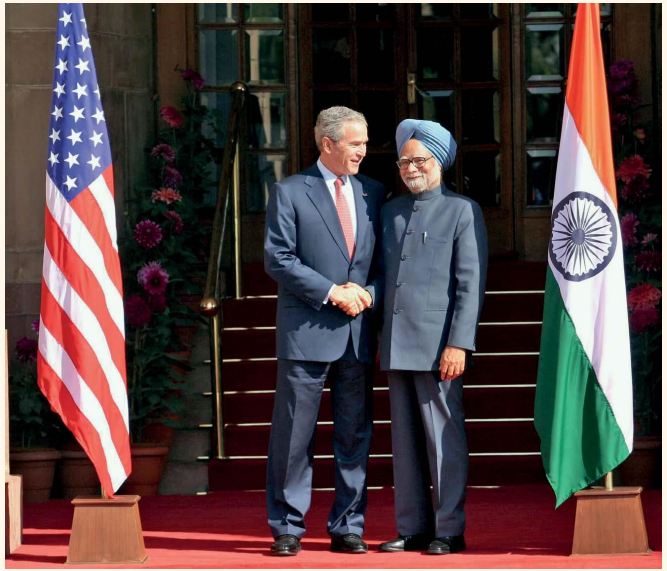
Answer

Salman Khan Hit n Run case

Question 5

Answer

Indo US Nuclear Deal



Thanks!

FOLLOW US

instagram.com/qcnitw

youtube.com/c/QuizClubNITW

facebook.com/qcnitw

Check out more of our quizzes on:

https://www.slideshare.net/QuizClubNITW/