

The Q-Factor Gen Quiz Prelims - by Aabhaas Dasgupta

SpringSpree, NIT Warangal

02/03/2025

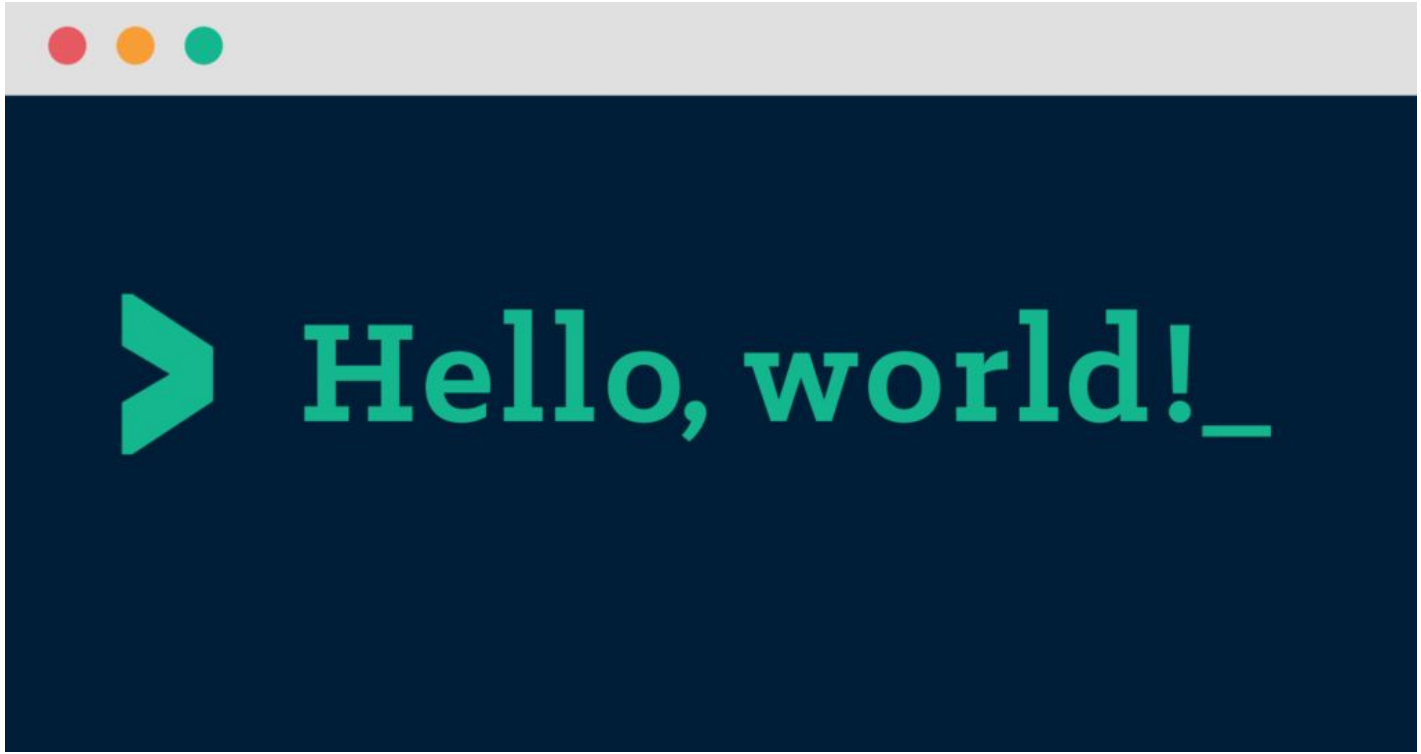

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

- SpringSpree Organising Committee
- Quiz Club NIT Warangal
- Amartya Saha, Rithwik Kambil and Srihari Raju for valuable suggestions regarding the content of the quiz

Rules

- 20 questions
- 1 point for each correct answer. No negatives
- Question 11–15 are tiebreakers. Question 16-20 are two pointers
- Blanks are indicative everywhere
- Bolded parts are the major hints in each question
- Top 8 teams in finals

LETS BEGIN

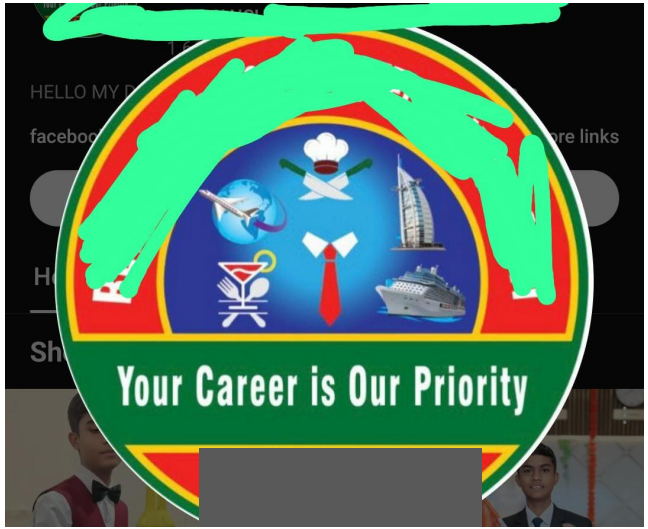

Question 1

We start off with a local question

These are images regarding an educational institute located ~220 km from here. They are probably better known for a more viral piece of marketing.

Which institute is this? Images follow

Your Career is Our Priority

Question 2

What is the national animal of Botswana—chosen both as a reference to the flag and also to represent its ethos of racial equality ?

Question 3

The Second Battle of al-Faw, also known as Operation _____ _____ (a common saying) - fought on 17 April 1988, was a major battle of the Iran-Iraq War. It began at 5 am, unfortunately coinciding with the beginning of something.

What is the title?

Question 4

Since Valentine's Day was clashing with something in Europe a few years back and people had to make a choice between a romantic date and following up with updates in real time, Betclic organized a dinner concept where individuals can get the updates through the menu items themselves.

What kind of events were they seeking updates from?

Question 5

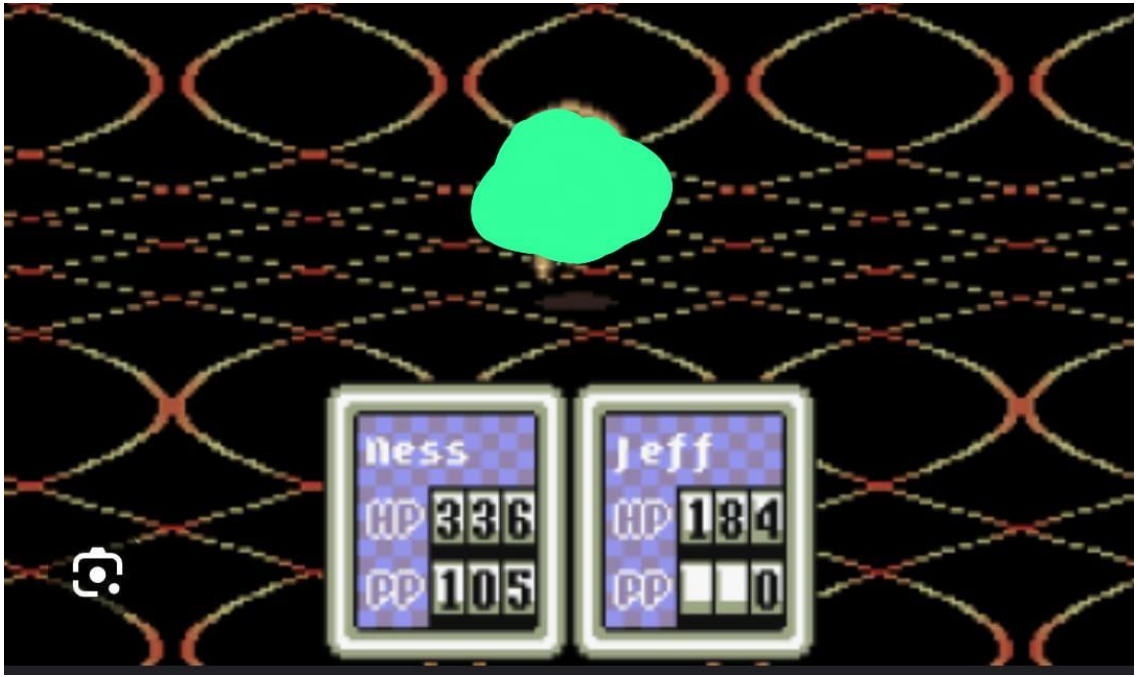

The Form No. 42 (under CrPC) is issued in India when a prisoner is to be hanged to death.

What is its colorful name—in the news in the last few months due to a pop culture phenomenon set in a Delhi establishment?

Question 6

The game EarthBound features many "surreal and abstract" enemies. One such enemy has the power to "freeze you in time," ensuring your experience lingers in the game.

What from the 1930s—by a Spaniard—inspired this enemy?

Ness
HP 336
PP 105
Jeff
HP 184
PP 0

Question 7

According to her, this creative choice bore out of deep personal significance—her parents first met while traveling to Scotland from here.

What is this ‘royal’ place used for the London-Scotland commute, in fact and in fiction?

Question 8

According to Berkeley's Business Review, economists began to take the _____ Index seriously after Twitter user @botticellibimbo correctly predicted the 2022 crisis based on her profits at 'work'. The article also quotes a Reddit user: 'when patrons can't afford to throw a few singles in the air, we might be up shit's creek.'

Which 'profession' names this economic indicator?

Question 9

The Remounted _____ Corps of the Indian Army is unusual as it mainly is not concerned with humans. Its logo aptly contains the first letter of the word and images for indication of their field of work.

Which word fills the blank?

Question 10

Curator's Gin is a special gin by Cambridge Distillery, celebrating the University Gardens. Apart from the regular gin botanicals, a special ingredient is taken from the genetically identical clones of a source.

Which source is this, originally in Lincolnshire? (a proper noun + 1-2 words).
We aren't sure if this drink falling on the ground leads to inspiration for the drinkers.

Question 11

This world record-holding geographical feature originates from Auyan-tepui, which translates to 'Devil's Mountain' (ironic!) . Its name has no religious connotations but comes from James _____, who first spotted it in 1933 while flying over it in search of an ore bed.

Which geographical feature is this?

Question 12

Suneung takes place mid-November and is often considered one of the toughest entrance exams in the world.

According to a report, what 'appropriate' creation by a 'floral' individual was causing distraction for the students last year and thus was put on "banned" lists?

Question 13

_____ Gita is a chapter in the Hindu epic Mahabharata that is a conversation between Krishna and Yudhishthira. It is about desire and how to contain it.

What is the name, more associated with a different Indian work from antiquity?

Question 14

Meena _____—this individual's wife—has a stellar career herself—a gold medalist in economics from Stella Maris College, Chennai. She founded Prayas Trusts, a women-led NGO formed of female employees, and which other group? (Need company name + 1-2 common words, famous a few months back.).

We aren't sure if her husband approves of all this non-productive activities

Question 15

"I always wanted to do _____, but more than that, I just wanted to be involved in the game in any role. And recently, Shane Warne retired, and the whole country needed this kind of player. And so, I started out... ".

Who is talking about his early career? A random quizzing guess might work.

Question 16

This is a screengrab from the Colling Word of the Year 2024 contest. This represents the winner and means 'confident, independent, and hedonistic' was the winner.

Another word in the top 10 is a social media coinage and means 'utterly mistaken or unrealistic in one's ideas or expectations'.

Which word was the winner? Which other word—which you hopefully have a solution for—is mentioned in the second para?

Question 17

A study of ancient Romans discussed their meticulous approach to dental care. This was evident from the 1000+ skeletons found in south of modern-day Rome, with the study made easy by careful natural preservation

It was found that only about one-third of the skeletons had missing teeth. This was attributed to the use of a special ingredient in their toothpaste, which was imported from Portugal and was used for ammonia content and whitening.

Where were these skeletons from? What was this ingredient—a source of other scientific discoveries—that might be disgusting today in the context of mouthwash?

Question 18

The Economist recently wrote on the global potential of Indian tourism. There is one key challenge to this (apart from VISA issues), and that's about a habit issue for Indians—with this due to the unwillingness to experiment with lifestyle.

However, an Indian who traveled across America and Europe in 1890s—in wake of his triumph in America—faced the opposite issue. People assumed that because of his philosophy , he would prefer this. But it was opposite due to his upbringing and need for higher energy to travel and speak for long.

What is this problem? Which Indian and what opposite problem he faced?

Question 19

In the mid- to late-19th century, Russia was going through multiple financial and social problems. Leo Tolstoy attributed it to something and wrote an article 'Why Do Men Stupefy Themselves' and, along with a doctor, did psychological analysis on the reasons behind apparently self-destructive habits.

One of his major nemesis in this regard was an entrepreneur, Pyotr _____, who tapped into the Russians' thirst for the craze, and the rest is history.

What cause was thus championed by Tolstoy? What name—extremely familiar even today—fills in the blank?

Question 20

This is from an interview with this guy about his 2023 award-winning work.

"It was also kind of scary because, how do I get that music to sound like that? Because I know I wanted to work with tempo, and I know I wanted to record it live and play it with musicians, but how to get those tempo increasing like that."

What music is this—viral social media reels in sarcastic contexts of intelligence? What did the music supposedly resemble—something that humans normally can't experience and is overall fundamental to the theme?

ANSWERS FOLLOW!

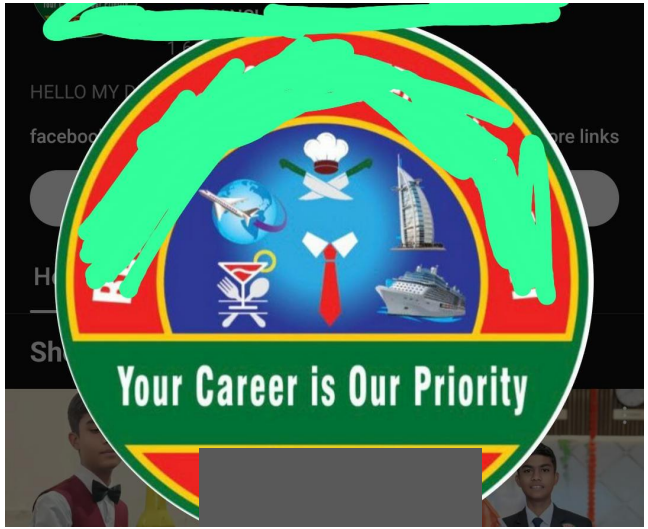

Question 1

We start off with a local question!

These are images regarding an educational institute located ~220 km from here. They are probably better known for a more viral piece of marketing.

Which institute is this? Images follow

Your Career is Our Priority

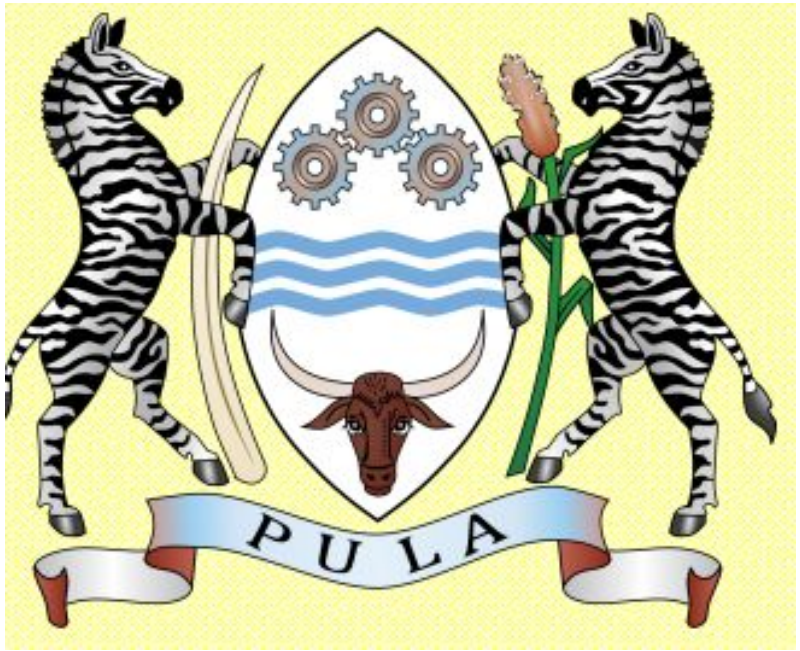

REYANSH
COLLEGE OF HOTEL MANAGEMENT
PROMO SONG

Question 2

What is the national animal of Botswana—chosen both as a reference to the flag and also to represent its ethos of racial equality ?

Zebra!

Question 3

The Second Battle of al-Faw, also known as Operation _____ _____ (a common saying) - fought on 17 April 1988, was a major battle of the Iran-Iraq War. It began at 5 am, unfortunately coinciding with the beginning of something.

What is the title?

Ramadan Mubarak!

Question 4

Since Valentine's Day was clashing with something in Europe a few years back and people had to make a choice between a romantic date and following up with updates in real time, Betclic organized a dinner concept where individuals can get the updates through the menu items themselves.

What kind of events were they seeking updates from?

Football matches!

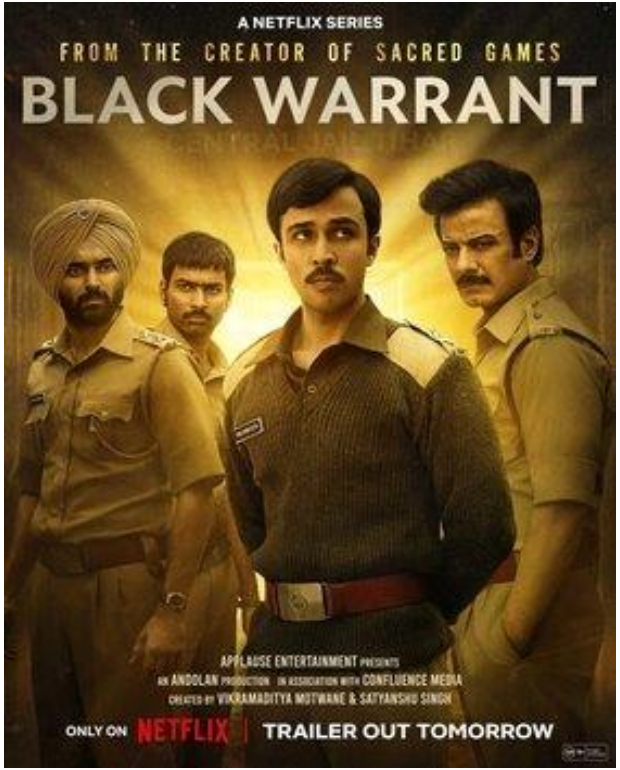

Question 5

The Form No. 42 (under CrPC) is issued in India when a prisoner is to be hanged to death.

What is its colorful name—in the news in the last few months due to a pop culture phenomenon set in a Delhi establishment?

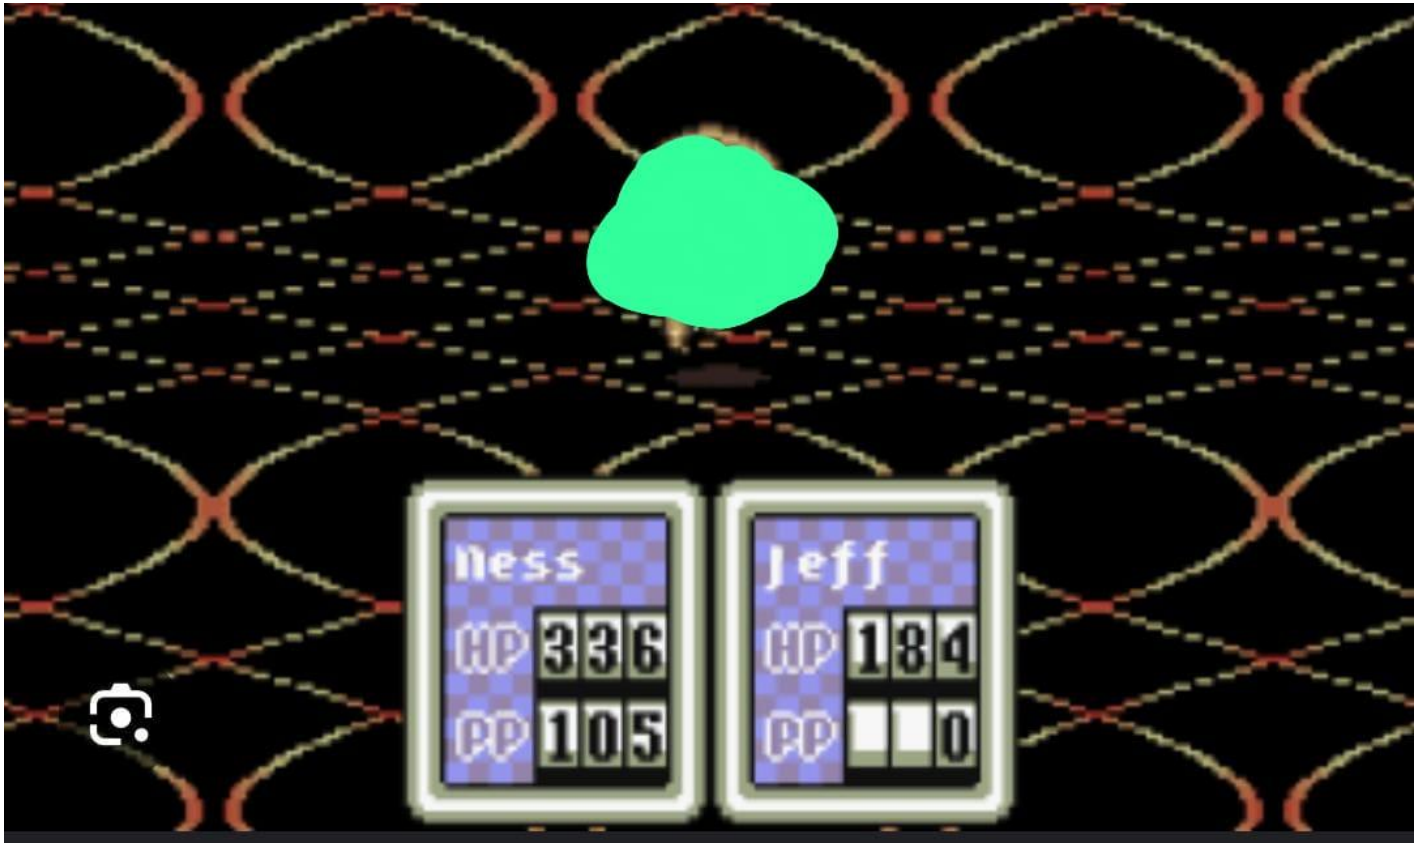

Black Warrant

Question 6

The game EarthBound features many "surreal and abstract" enemies. One such enemy has the power to "freeze you in time," ensuring your experience lingers in the game.

What from the 1930s—by a Spaniard—inspired this enemy?

Ness
HP 336
PP 105
Jeff
HP 184
PP 0

•The Dali's Clock froze
you in time!
Ness
HP 336
PP 105
Jeff
HP 184
PP 0

Persistence of Memory by Dali!

Question 7

According to her, this creative choice bore out of deep personal significance—her parents first met while traveling to Scotland from here.

What is this ‘royal’ place used for the London-Scotland commute, in fact and in fiction?

King's Cross (in Harry Potter)!

This is the supposed reason why JK Rowling chose this station as the starting point of the train to Hogwarts (in Scotland)!

Question 8

According to Berkeley's Business Review, economists began to take the _____ Index seriously after Twitter user @botticellibimbo correctly predicted the 2022 crisis based on her profits at 'work'. The article also quotes a Reddit user: 'when patrons can't afford to throw a few singles in the air, we might be up shit's creek.'

Which 'profession' names this economic indicator?

Stripper

The logic behind the index is that given the money spent on sex workers is often in meager amounts, a reduction in that is a veritable indication of recession

Question 9

The Remounted _____ Corps of the Indian Army is unusual as it mainly is not concerned with humans . Its logo aptly contains the first letter of the word and images for indication of their field of work.

Which word fills the blank?

Veterinary!

The logo aptly shows animals and the Caduceus—a symbol for medicine.

It is one of the army's oldest formations and is responsible for breeding, rearing, and training all animals used in the army.

Question 10

Curator's Gin is a special gin by Cambridge Distillery, celebrating the University Gardens. Apart from the regular gin botanicals, a special ingredient is taken from the genetically identical clones of a source.

Which source is this, originally in Lincolnshire? (a proper noun + 1-2 words).
We aren't sure if this drink falling on the ground leads to inspiration for the drinkers.

Isaac Newton's apple tree!

Question 11

This world record-holding geographical feature originates from Auyan-tepui, which translates to 'Devil's Mountain' (ironic!) . Its name has no religious connotations but comes from James _____, who first spotted it in 1933 while flying over it in search of an ore bed.

Which geographical feature is this?

Angel Falls

The tallest waterfall in the world!

Question 12

Suneung takes place mid-November and is often considered one of the toughest entrance exams in the world.

According to a report, what appropriate creation by a floral individual was causing distraction for the students last year and thus was put on "banned" lists?

APT (by Rose and Bruno Mars)

Question 13

_____ Gita is a chapter in the Hindu epic Mahabharata that is a conversation between Krishna and Yudhishthira. It is about desire and how to contain it.

What is the name, more associated with a different Indian work from antiquity?

Kama!

Can’t show the other work due to obvious reasons :p

Question 14

Meena _____—this individual's wife—has a stellar career herself—a gold medalist in economics from Stella Maris College, Chennai. She founded Prayas Trusts, a women-led NGO formed of female employees, and which other group? (Need company name + 1-2 common words, famous a few months back.).

We aren't sure if her husband approves of all this non-productive activities

L&T (male) employees' wives!

She is the wife of SN Subramanian!

Question 15

"I always wanted to do _____, but more than that, I just wanted to be involved in the game in any role. And recently, Shane Warne retired, and the whole country needed this kind of player. And so, I started out... ".

Who is talking about his early career? A random quizzing guess might work.

Steve Smith!

He started off as a leg-spinner and then went on to become the 'best since Bradman'!

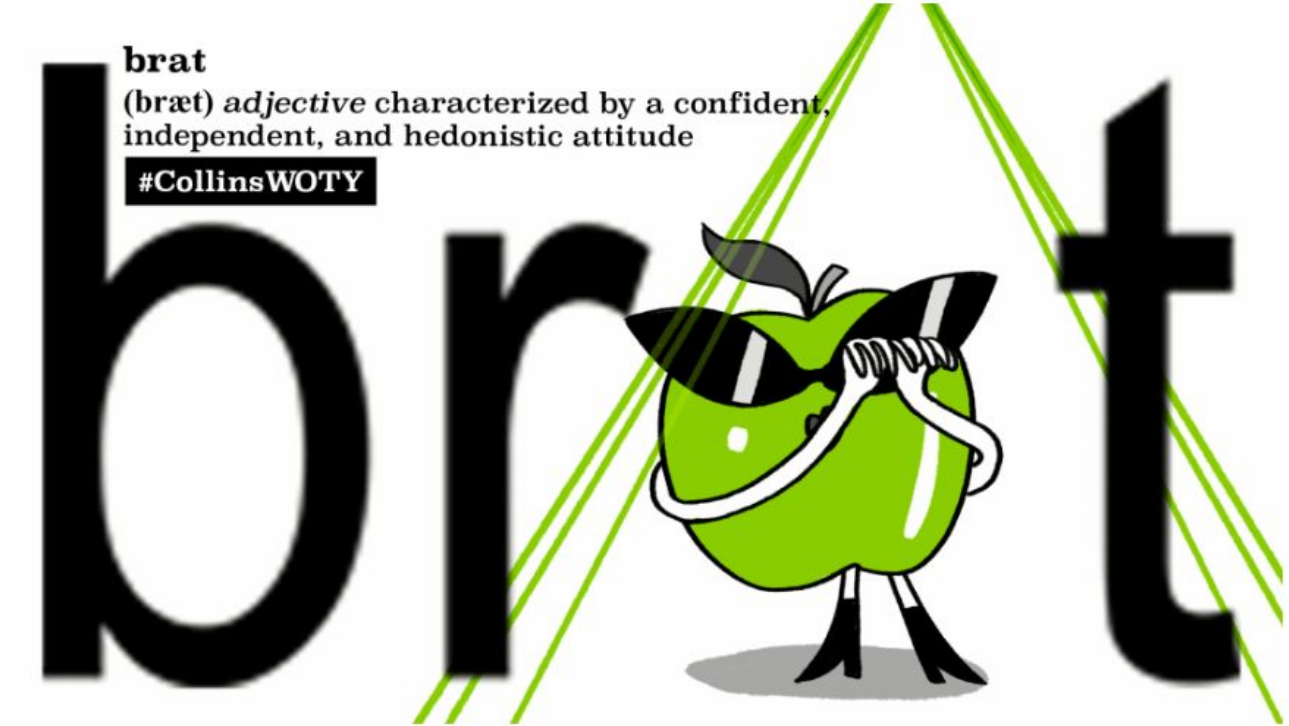

Question 16

This is a screengrab from the Colling Word of the Year 2024 contest. This represents the winner and means 'confident, independent, and hedonistic' was the winner.

Another word in the top 10 is a social media coinage and means 'utterly mistaken or unrealistic in one's ideas or expectations'.

Which word was the winner? Which other word—which you hopefully have a solution for—is mentioned in the second para?

brat
(bræt) adjective characterized by a confident, independent, and hedonistic attitude
#CollinsWOTY
brat

Delulu
is the SOLULU

Question 17

A study of ancient Romans discussed their meticulous approach to dental care. This was evident from the 1000+ skeletons found in south of modern-day Rome, with the study made easy by careful natural preservation.

It was found that only about one-third of the skeletons had missing teeth. This was attributed to the use of a special ingredient in their toothpaste, which was imported from Portugal and was used for ammonia content and whitening.

Where were these skeletons from? What was this ingredient—a source of other scientific discoveries—that might be disgusting today in the context of mouthwash?

Pompeii

UPDATED 8 MAY, 2022 - 23:00 BRYAN HILL

Ancient Romans Brushed Their Teeth with Urine

Question 18

The Economist recently wrote on the global potential of Indian tourism. There is one key challenge to this (apart from VISA issues), and that's about a habit issue for Indians—with this due to the unwillingness to experiment with lifestyle.

However, an Indian who traveled across America and Europe in 1890s—in wake of his triumph in America—faced the opposite issue. People assumed that because of his philosophy , he would prefer this. But it was opposite due to his upbringing and need for higher energy to travel and speak for long.

What is this problem? Which Indian and what opposite problem he faced?

The need for Indian/Vegetarian food!

Question 19

In the mid- to late-19th century, Russia was going through multiple financial and social problems. Leo Tolstoy attributed it to something and wrote an article 'Why Do Men Stupefy Themselves' and, along with a doctor, did psychological analysis on the reasons behind apparently self-destructive habits.

One of his major nemesis in this regard was an entrepreneur, Pyotr _____, who tapped into the Russians' thirst for the craze, and the rest is history.

What cause was thus championed by Tolstoy? What name—extremely familiar even today—fills in the blank?

The Marginalian

Conscience and Spirit: Leo Tolstoy on Why Humans Drink

BY MARIA POPOVA

THE KING OF VODKA
THE STORY OF PYOTR SMIRNOV
and the Upheaval
of an Empire
LINDA HIMELSTEIN

Question 20

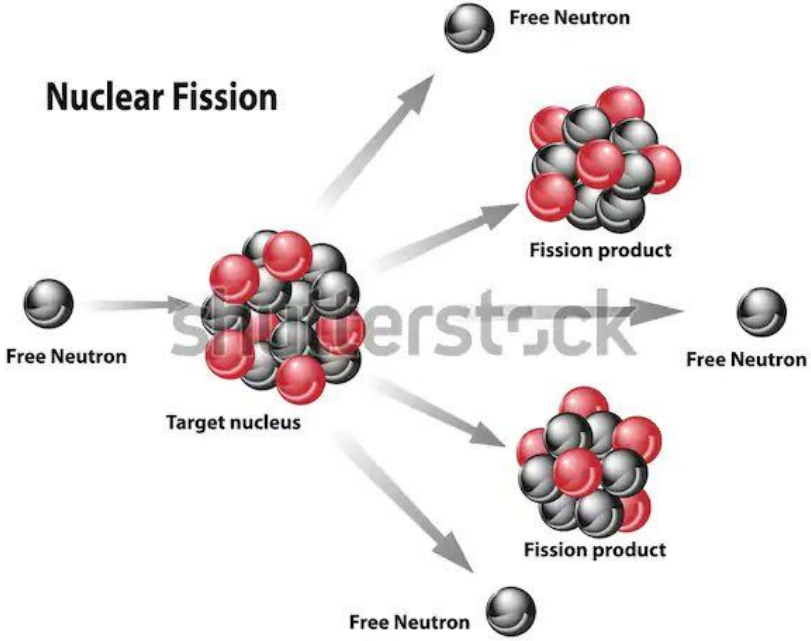

This is from an interview with this guy about his 2023 award-winning work.

"It was also kind of scary because, how do I get that music to sound like that? Because I know I wanted to work with tempo, and I know I wanted to record it live and play it with musicians, but how to get those tempo increasing like that."

What music is this—viral social media reels in sarcastic contexts of intelligence? What did the music supposedly resemble—something that humans normally can't experience and is overall fundamental to the theme?

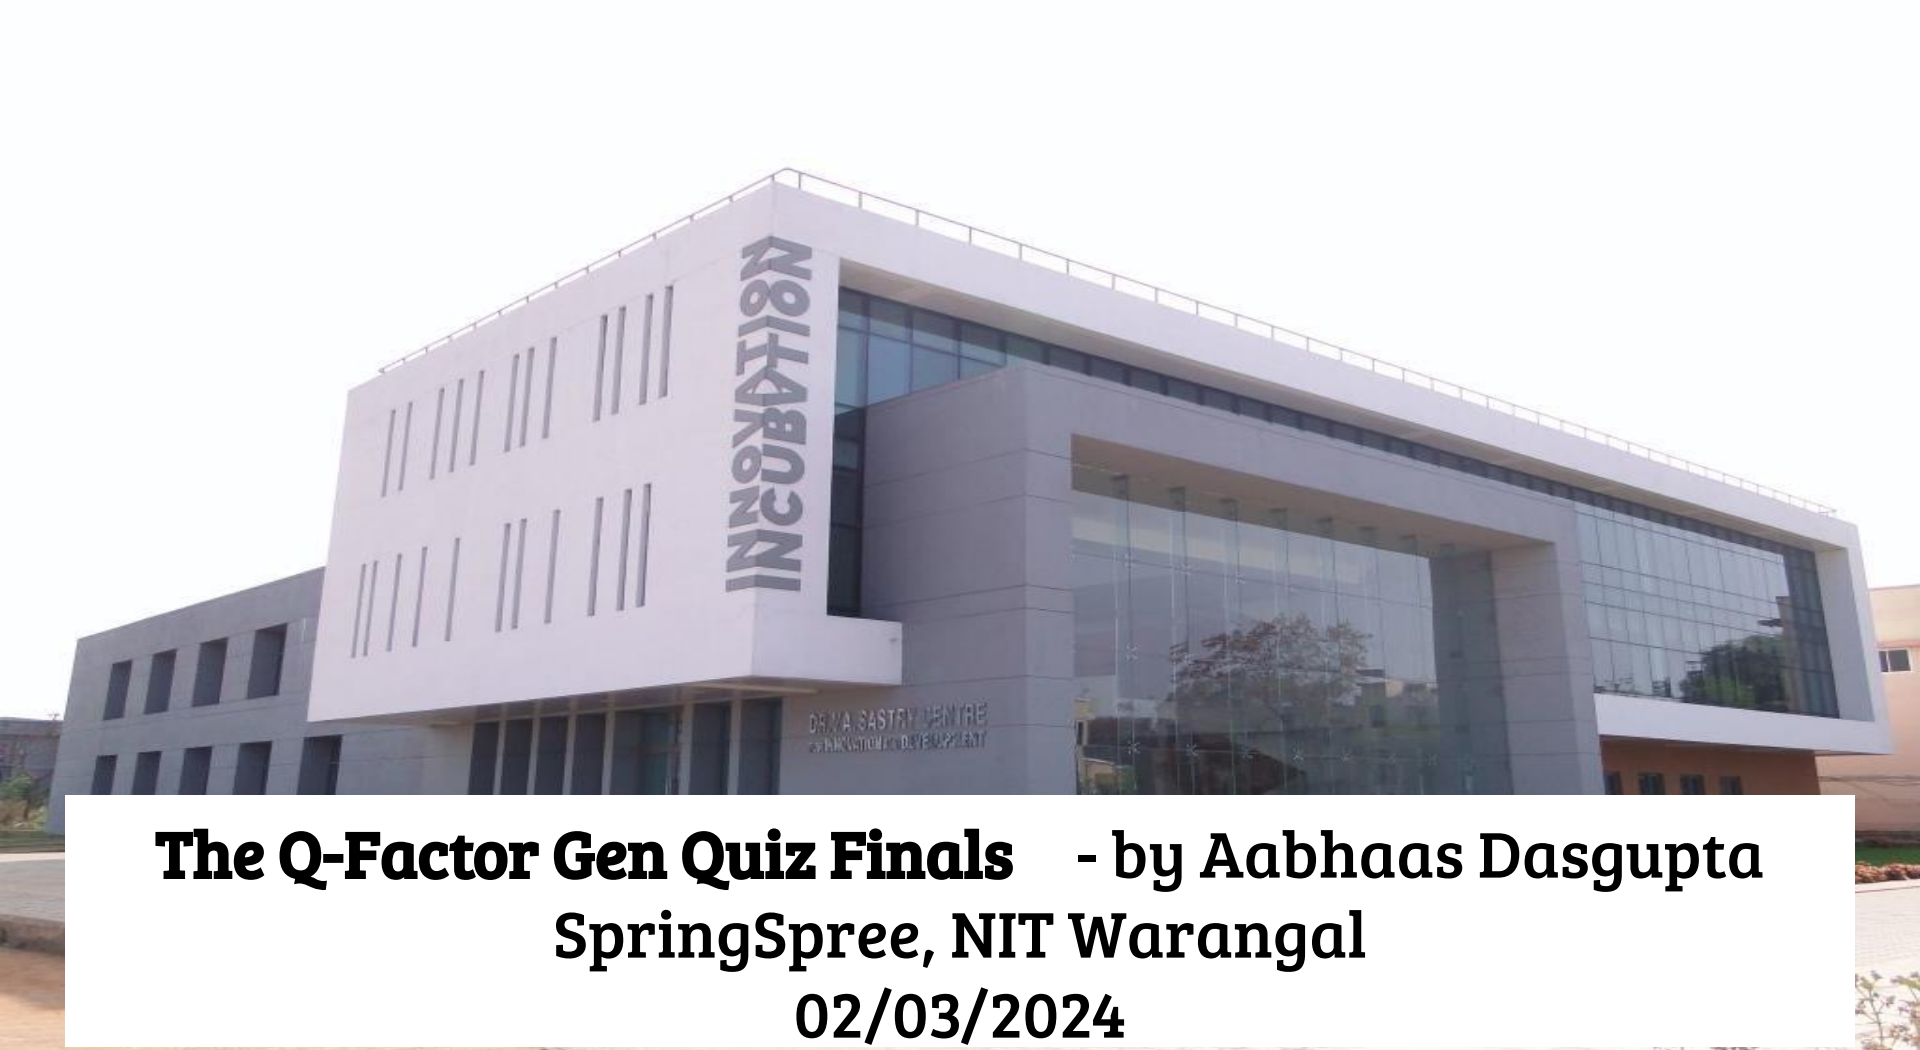

OPPENHEIMER

Ludwig Göransson took inspiration from the splitting of an atom to create the music for Oppenheimer!

Answers

1	Reyansh College of Hotel Management	11	Angel falls
2	Zebra	12	APT
3	Ramadan Mubarak	13	Kama
4	Football Matches	14	L&T (male) employees' wives
5	Black Warrant	15	Steve Smith
6	Persistence of Memory/ Dali Clock	16	Brat; Delulu
7	Kings Cross	17	Pompeii; Romans used urine used to brush teeth.
8	Stripper (or any equivalent term)	18	Vivekananda; Vegetarian Food
9	Veterinary	19	Why Humans Drink; The King of Vodka
10	Isaac Newton Apple Tree	20	Oppenheimer music; inspired from splitting of the atom

The Q-Factor Gen Quiz Finals - by Aabhaas Dasgupta

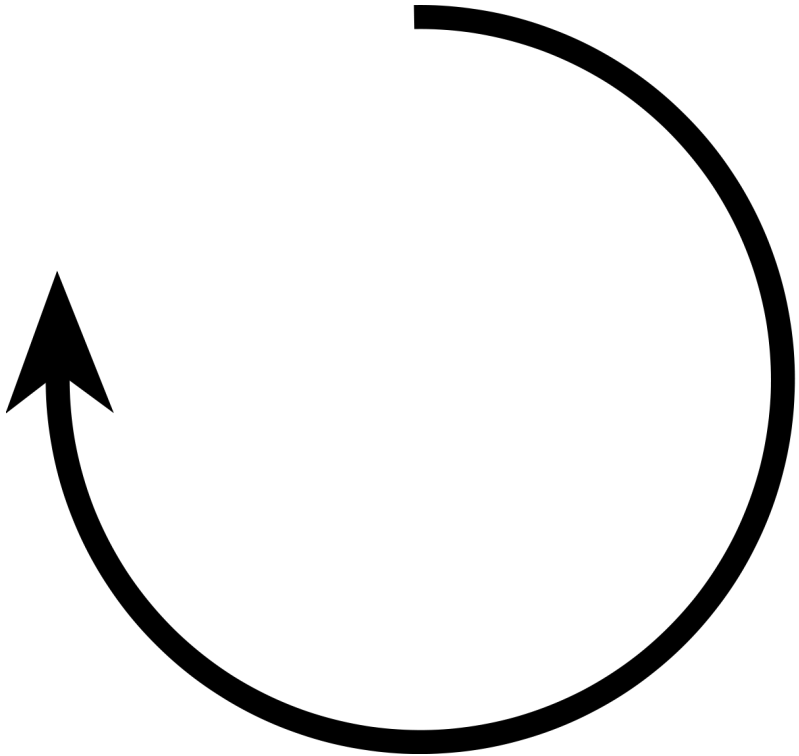

SpringSpree, NIT Warangal

02/03/2024

Rules

- 2 rounds of 10 questions on pounce/bounce
- 1 written rounds of 3 questions
- +10 for each question on pounce/bounce. -5 for incorrect on pounce

CLOCKWISE DRIES

Question 1

Chhava, the talk of the town today, is the rage all over India. However, it was initially planned to be released on December 6 2024. The makers wisely delayed it to prevent a Barbenheimer type of event from happening.

What 'ruling' event did the makers of Chhava delay their release?

Release of Pushpa 2: The Rule!

Question 2

He owns a wine company named after his nickname _____ ___ , making wine handpicked from his favourite region in Portugal .

It's the logo (partly shown here) features his famous silhouette inside a letter.

What's the name of this (not so ordinary) wine? Who is the owner?

VERSUS
JOSÉ MOURINHO LAUNCHES 'THE SPECIAL ONE' WINE BRAND
The wine's case and label features the silhouette of Mourinho's iconic Champions League celebration with Porto in 2004.

Question 3

_____ _____*: business failures from the* _____ to Evergrande talks about the impacts - and inability to recover the investment - caused due to business failures due to various reasons. The title thus comes from an economic concept

The blanked out 'entity'/'event' featured here because scientists in 1990s found that corporate failure would have cause poor production quality of iron, making them brittle. This event is also doubly apt in a way, given the title.

What is the title of the article(in plural)? What fills the third blank?

1843magazine

Sunk costs: business failures from the Titanic to Evergrande

A crash course in crumbling companies

Question 4

Shasn is an award-winning political strategy board game, where each player takes on the role of a politician contesting elections, and tries to win by voters influencing by answering various ideology questions, and gaining majority .

After a majority is gained in a zone in the game, the player can change the position of any voter(his or others) in any of the bordering zones .

The creators call the game a 'cultural _____ _____'- good content can draw you in with its shiny foil and imaginative setting, and insidiously deliver insights before you even recognize that a re-education is happening.

What (from American politics) is the name of the action performed? What do the creators compare the game to?

GERRYMANDERING

Forming a majority in a zone gives a player influence in all neighbouring zones (with shared boundary lines). The player can now gerrymander voters every turn, ie, move around voters in adjoining zones.

Players can gerrymander a voter into an adjoining zone, into their majority zone, or in between two adjoining zones (illustrated below).

Gerrymandering into the majority zone

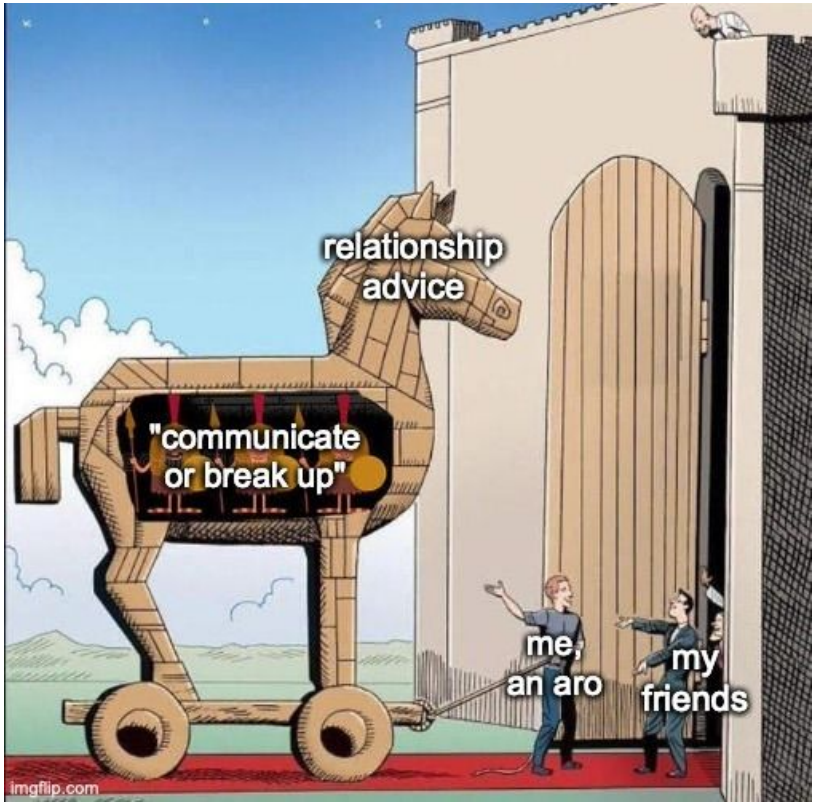

Gerrymandering into an adjoining zone

Gerrymandering between adjoining areas

Trojan Horse

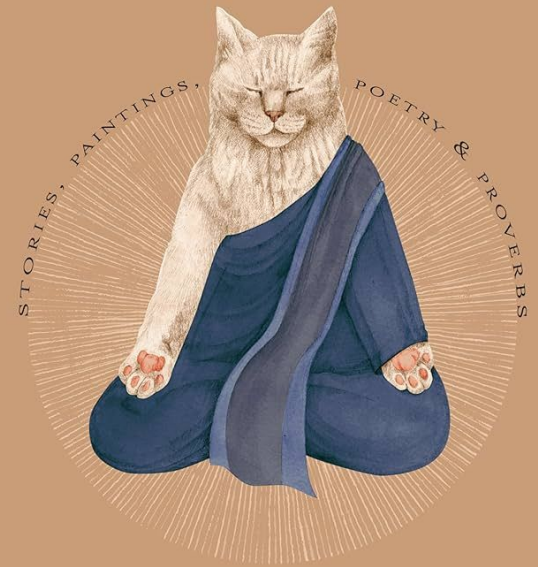

Question 5

The Indian ___ by art historian BN Goswamy brings together stories, paintings, poetry and proverbs on "the idea of the ___" in the subcontinent. According to him, although these were associated with superstition and sometimes portrayed as cunning, they were commonly represented as resting and prowling companions in Indian art.

This story has been discussed of late because of the official entry of a company/product in India after 50 years of existence. They signify the 'kawaii' culture - cute, tiny and adorable.

What does the book discuss/FITB? What is thus making its entry into India?

THE INDIAN CAT

B.N. GOSWAMY

The bestselling author of The Spirit of Indian Painting

Konnichiwa, India: Can Hello Kitty assimilate into the subcontinent's diverse art aesthetic?

The icon of Japan's 'kawaii' culture has long featured on Indian merchandise – unofficially. Is her official India launch the start of a new, daunting, journey?

Andleeb Shadab
Nov 10, 2024 · 11:30 am

READ IN APP

Question 6

Along with other projects for this 'client', Hans Zimmer is also creating a reimagined version of something important for them . This follows multiple sportswashing initiative by the 'client', and is also thematically similar to his past work in Dune.

What is this composition, officially known as Aash Al-Malik (Long Live the King)? (Need 'client name' + 'type of composition')

Saudi Arabia's National Anthem!

Zimmer also discussed a Saudi-inspired musical called Arabia, a "very large concert" and the soundtrack for The Battle of Yarmuk, a forthcoming film

Saudi Arabia asks Hans Zimmer to rework national anthem

Composer also discusses plans for musical and film score as kingdom attempts to improve its image

Question 7

When this historic lofty achievement occurred for a different nation in Mumbai a few months ago , comparisons were made to a similar achievement from seven decades ago.

One of the common talking points in all discussions was how this was a homecoming for the protagonist- drawing comparisons to a similar effort from 2021.

What was the older achievement that is being referred to here? What is this homecoming connection/who is it for?

MEN'S CRICKET

New Zealand scales their cricket's Mt. Everest

They just got their personal Mount Everest and cricket's Mount Everest in one series

Jarrod Kimber
Nov 4, 2024 — 6 min read

'87,689 Baar Bata Chuka Hai': Netizens Slam Harsha Bhogle For Mentioning Ajaz Patel's Jogeshwari Connection Repeatedly

Ajaz Patel earned the Player of the Match award for taking 11 wickets in the Mumbai Test vs India

Aakash Singh | Updated: Sunday, November 03, 2024, 03:12 PM IST

RECENT STORIES

IND vs SA, 3rd T20I: Flying Ants Disrupt Play At Centurion During South Africa's Batting; Both...

Kumamoto Masters

Question 8

One of the earliest instances of a literal use of this word was in the 19th century work The Enemies of _____. Among things like fire, heat,dust and neglect, ignorance and bigotry, servants and children, these are the only creatures (non-human) mentioned.

Research has shown these creatures aren't in love with the primary component with these items, but with additional ones like leather, cloth and glue.

Regular usage of the word would probably make one thinking about friends/lovers and not enemies of these items.

What creatures are these - giving a common term to many 'nerds' now?

Posted on August 29, 2018

Yes, Bookworms Are a Real Thing

Question 9

This startup - co-founded by an NIT Jamshedpur alumni - has the tagline 'From Seeds to Marketplace'. It has a camelcase name(Eg PayTM, NaCl) where the second part of the name is a local word for market whereas the entire name is phonetically same as a word commonly used here, which means countryside.

One of the key issues the founders realised was that agricultural process was broken, and was looked upon as silos. They decided to provide integrated solutions - in input, output, financing ,etc. They named this approach in reference to a commonly used term in tech companies. Many tech enthusiastic students here would be willing to venture into the field mentioned in the term.

Which startup is this? What did they name their approach to farming?

Answer:

DeHaat

Fullstack!

DeHaat onboards 500 FPO; facilitates full stack agri offerings for thousands of farmers

Question 10

This French company came up with a program to celebrate leading women athletes and show how they are no less than men - with their own superpowers

The one-word title of the program represented their star status , and had a letter represented by an apt symbol.

Which company - who are probably named after the multiple sub-fields they want to excel in - is this ? What was this symbol in the title?

The symbol for the females

Written round 1 - Wordsmash

- 3 questions where answers have 3 or more overlapping letters Eg. inDIA and DIA Mirza
- One question is PHONETIC—sound smashes, not letter eg Fidelity and Litti Chokha
- +5 for each part
- No negative, so feel free to guess

Question 1

The '_____Fest' - hosted in Jio World Garden, BKC recently - is considered 'Asia's largest _____ _____(6,4) festival'.

This type of fest encompasses talks conversations, poetry recitals, storytelling but notably lacks written content like books/literature.

What type of festival is this? 2 words

Amor na bandeira ("love in the ___") is a 2021 movement by Brazilian politician Eduardo Spicily to add the word "amor" (love) to the two nouns in which nationally important phrase? Both Portuguese and English versions work.

Question 2

Which company hosted this fashion event in Paris? They created a ramp by reworking their logo to resemble the infinity symbol. Image follows

According to the cricket federation's official website, who is credited with introducing cricket to Italy in 1793 when he was there to get reinforcements for the Siege of Toulon? He would be involved in the invasion of Corsica the following year- apt given events near the end of his lifetime . Surname smashes.

Question 3

TempleOS is a biblical/religious computer operating system.

It is coded in the language ____ _ - a variant of an extremely common programming language . It is homophonous with an important religious governing body.

What's the language called?

PHONETIC

This is a snippet from an award-winning board game called La Famiglia, that is controversial due to its gamification of a violent subject matter.

Which island is the game set in? Image follows.

Clue: Both answers are geographically nearby!

Famiglia Di Fiori
A
B
C

ANSWERS FOLLOW!

Question 1

The '_____Fest' - hosted in Jio World Garden, BKC recently - is considered 'Asia's largest _____ _____(6,4) festival'.

This type of fest encompasses talks conversations, poetry recitals, storytelling but notably lacks written content like books/literature.

What type of festival is this? 2 words

Amor na bandeira ("love in the ___") is a 2021 movement by Brazilian politician Eduardo Spicily to add the word "amor" (love) to the two nouns in which nationally important phrase? Both Portuguese and English versions work.

Spoken WORD

as opposed to 'written word' involving books

ORDem e Progresso (Order and Progress)

The phrase in the Brazilian National Flag. 'bandeira' means flag

Question 2

Which company hosted this fashion event in Paris? They created a ramp by reworking their logo to resemble the infinity symbol. Image follows

According to the cricket federation's official website, who is credited with introducing cricket to Italy in 1793 when he was there to get reinforcements for the Siege of Toulon? He would be involved in the invasion of Corsica the following year- apt given events near the end of his lifetime . Surname smashes.

ChaNEL

The interlocked Cs are changed

(Admiral Horatio) NELson

This is not his only connect to cricket, with the score of 111 being called a Nelson, due to him losing 'one eye, one arm and one leg' in battle

Chanel realigns its logo with bridging catwalk at show focused on timeless skirt suit

House deploys elegant visual allegory at Grand Palais to keep its name in lights during design interregnum

Question 3

TempleOS is a biblical/religious computer operating system.

It is coded in the language ____ _ - a variant of an extremely common programming language . It is homophonous with an important religious governing body.

What's the language called?

PHONETIC

This is a snippet from an award-winning board game called La Famiglia, that is controversial due to its gamification of a violent subject matter.

Which island is the game set in? Image follows.

Clue: Both answers are geographically nearby!

Famiglia Di Fiori
A
B
C

Holy C

(Punning on Holy See - the body overseeing the Vatican)

Sicily

(The families here refer to the Mafia families)

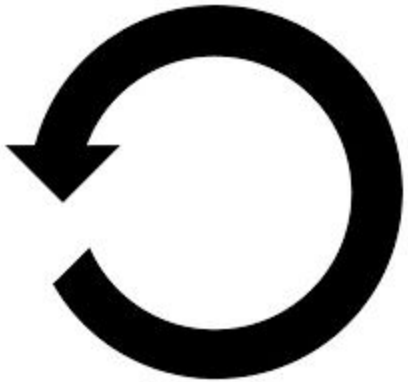

Outcry in Italy over German board game based on Sicily's mafia wars

Sister of murdered judge Giovanni Falcone describes it as an offence to all those who have fought organised crime

ANTI-CLOCKWISE DRIES

Question 11

This is the lower part of a Lego model, whose upper part has Lego light bricks.

When this structure was shown to be destroyed in the movie , the director faced a dilemma and could not show the traditional way in this are destroyed and thus came up with variation.

What 'dark fortress' is this? What was the director's dilemma all about?

May 14, 2024, 6:30 PM
GMT+5:30

37 Comments (37 New)

If you buy something from a Verge link, Vox Media may earn a commission. See our ethics statement.

Lego Barad-dûr revealed: Sauron's dark tower from The Lord of the Rings is $460

5,471 pieces and nearly three feet tall.

By Sean Hollister, a senior editor and founding member of The Verge who covers gadgets, games, and toys. He spent 15 years editing the likes of CNET, Gizmodo, and Engadget.

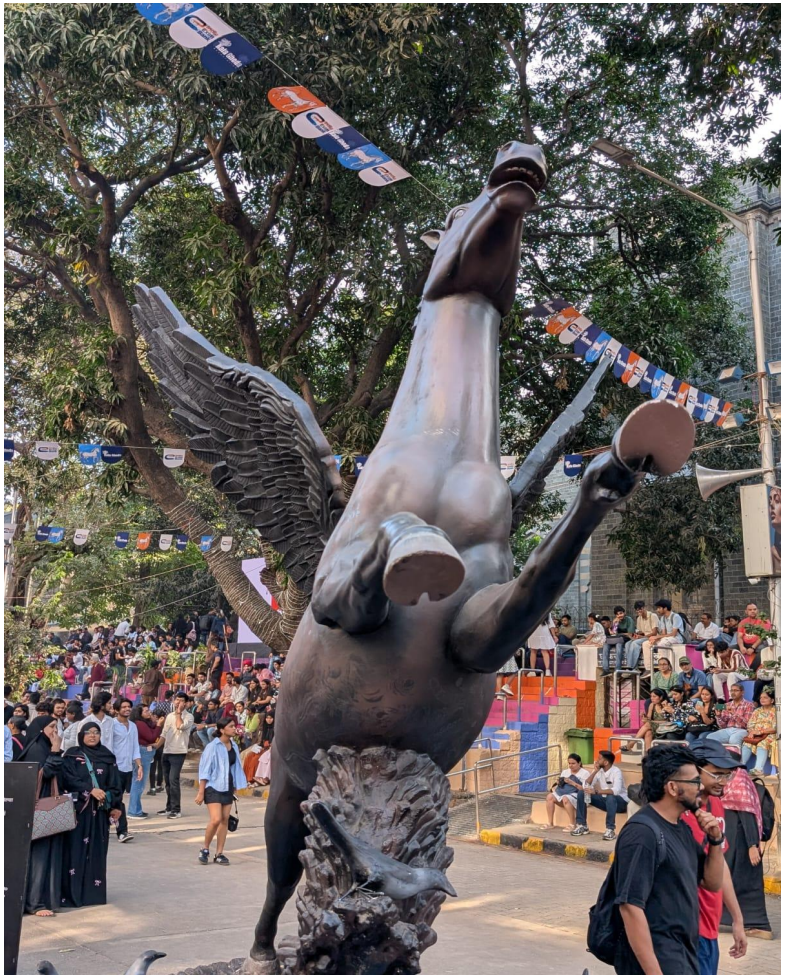

To dissociate as much as possible from 9/11!

The tower was shown to fall slanted, and not vertically

Question 12

What is the punny portmanteau name of this installation, punned using the location and the fact that it also features crows?

Answer

Kauwa Ghoda

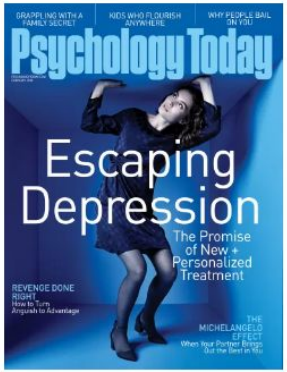

(Punning on crow + kaala ghoda)

Question 13

The _____ phenomenon is observed by psychologists in which close, romantic partners influence or _____ each other. This is done by chipping away unnecessary parts of their personalities to reach their own ideal state .

A variation of this is called the _____ phenomenon, where the partner attempts to mould the target based on their own ideals (rather than their own).

Whose name fills the first blank? What from Greek myth(and later literature/entertainment) gives its name to the variation?

January 2019
Seeing Beyond Depression

See More

The Michelangelo Effect

Your relationship can be a tool that brings out the best in you. Here's how to use your partner—in a good way.

By Sara Eckel published January 2, 2019 - last reviewed on May 21, 2019

Wendy De Rosa was stressed and overwhelmed by her unrelenting workload. She answered emails at the breakfast table, hosted webinars in the evening, and felt frustrated when her partner, James, asked her to log

The Pygmalion Effect in Love: Shaping Our Relationships
What is the Pygmalion Effect?

The Pygmalion Effect in Love: Shaping Our Relationships

By Boo
Last Updated: September 11, 2024

Question 14

In the 1950s, when the general consensus was about population being a strength for nation development, this visionary championed the cause of population control in India. In 1954 , he convinced Dr John Matthai to propose to the Health Minister of India that a School of Population Studies be built.

This was built in association with a Mumbai-based educational institution - apt for this person - which is even today renowned for social work education.

Which Bharat Ratna thus 'also' worked on population control? Which institution is this?

JRD Tata was honoured with the UN Population Award in 1992 for his efforts towards the family planning movement in India

Population control initiatives

JRD was the first prominent Indian to espouse family planning. He noted that India's population would double in 50 years (he wasn't far off the mark – it doubled in 40).

Soon after independence, when JRD raised with Nehru the importance of curbing the population, Nehru said, "But Jeh, population is our strength!" Undeterred, JRD raised the subject again in 1951, at which time India's population was just 361 million.

RE-IMAGINING FUTURES
भविष्य की पुनर्कल्पना
TISS
Tata Institute of Social Sciences

Question 15

This opera reflects the plight of the thousands of migrants who each year try to reach Europe via the Mediterranean Sea, and die in the process. 'The _____ is a metaphor of the human condition, for the poor and miserable of the Earth who are constantly abandoned by the powerful '

The lead singers are La Mort (Death) and Jean-Charles, the real- life sailor ,and _____ - apt given the theme of the opera, and the fact that the story moves across the living and the dead.

What from 1818 is the opera inspired by? Which mythical character is the other singer - also giving the name to a character from John Wick?

Gericault's 'Raft of the Medusa'

Charon, the ferryman to the underworld

Question 16

When a certain choice was being in July 2024 in a European capital - meant as a singer's compack comeback - the primary (and most famous) options were one about seeing the world in a certain hue or living a life without regrets.

The work finally chosen was one from 1949, which was meant as a tribute to the creator's then lover Marcel Cerdan - an athlete - apt given the broad new context.

Which singer's ouvre was this selection about/ What was this selection for? Who made this selection? As a clue, the singer who was making this comeback and selection isn't from this European country but speaks the same language.

Why Édith Piaf's plaintive song was the perfect fit for Céline Dion at Paris Games

The melody for the first live performance since 2020 by the singer, who has suffered with ill-health, was suitably tragic

Question 17

In the late 1940s, to justify the continuation of colonialism in its overseas, territories, the architect Baltazar da Silva Castro was commissioned to 'age' a series of buildings.The most famous building in this context was one dedicated to the 'good lord' , and intricately associated with a person - famous among other things in the field of education.

However, this nearly caused permanent damage to the building, and restoration work started in the late 1950s. The work could not complete because of the ongoing developments in that part of the world a few years later.

What structure am I talking about? Why could the restoration not be completed?

Basilica of Bom Jesus

Annexation of Goa to India

Question 18

The latest iteration of this song (with the first one in 2007) features two protagonists - two of the finest dancers in Bollywood. Thus, to showcase the jugalbandi ,keeping in mind the competitive spirit of the story, but also willing to represent the different personalities of both, the choreographer did something experimental.

What - known for a vernacular expression- am I talking about? What was done in the latest iteration?

Ami Je Tomar
KARTIK X VIDYA
SINGERS - ARIJIT SINGH, SHREYA GHOSHAL
MUSIC - PRITAM LYRICS - SAMEER

Vidya and Madhuri perform two different dance forms!

They performed Bharatnatyam and Kathak respectively

Question 19

In 2020, amid the Covid-19 pandemic, the relocation website MyBaggage realised that people were homesick, and thus sold 'products' in corked bottles (to enable re-use). The goal was to 'give expats and travelers a brief whiff of home , and generate strong emotions. They focused mainly on 'sourcing' then from Britain.

One of the customisable 'product' was taken from a group of 270+ places in a city visited by 3-4 million people (cumulative) daily, and this is supposed to remind users of machinery, grease and heat.

What products does the company sell? 'Where' was this variant sourced from?

Buy the smell of 'home' with a bottle of UK air – yours for £25

Whiff of desperation? Inhale the aroma of Snowdonia and even the London tube – or just enjoy a cheeky novelty gift of an empty bottle

London Underground

Question 20

The Hong Kong Tourism Board(HKTB) in recent years has tried to woo tourists from across the globe to boost the local economy.

One major outreach opportunity was in October, when they went to give special packages for certain unlucky Indians . Specifically targeting these dates - April 9,11 and 12 in 2025, they are inviting them to the venue shown, and while they are visiting , asking them to visit other parts of the country too.

Who were these unlucky Indians - who missed out on the chance to visit 2 west Indian cities for this? Image follows

Hong Kong woos Indians who missed out on Coldplay tickets

When tickets for Coldplay's concert in Mumbai went on sale last month on BookMyShow, only for the servers to crash leaving lakhs of fans high and dry. The tickets were also being sold in black markets for exorbitant rates

By K. Sunil Thomas | Updated: October 09, 2024 16:03 IST

FOLLOW

instagram.com/qcnitw
facebook.com/qcnitw
youtube.com/c/QuizClubNITW

Check out more of our quizzes:

slideshare.com/QuizClubNITW

